The Editor's column

By S. R. PADDOCK

We are stealing editorial thunder from a Des Plaines newspaper, whose editor has a suggestion on how the extra sales tax should be expended.

"Let the village board specify in an ordinance the purpose to which the sales tax money will go; then use the balance to cut the following year's tax levy."

Of course, the taxpayers would have to depend upon the honesty of the aldermen not to sweeten the next year's levy, but it sounds good in print. If Palatine follows its present budget, there will be an excess of $10,000 of sales tax funds.

Girls are just as important as boys. A lot of attention is given in every community to Little League activities. This is largely the responsibility of the men.

The Girl Scout organization also needs adult leadership. How about it, ladies? Have you volunteered to help out?

We felt rather ashamed when we had to tell the head of a big Chicago firm this week that there would be no community chest in Arlington Heights this year.

We did not go into detail as to "why." With no community chest, contributions from employees of Chicago firms cannot help local charities.

It is this-a-way folks. Too many Arlington families have gotten into the habit of coming up with a mere dollar when a fund solicitor calls. A community chest can't live on that small change.

After Monday, nobody can say that a Dollar Day does not bring a lot of people to Arlington business district. The stores now have room for their fall stock. Back-to-school sales start this week.

We take our hats off to the owner of an auto agency who places 4-H training above mere dollars. When told that there was an increase in the price of exhibit space this year at the fair, he replied, "Fine, the training our youth receive as 4-H members is worth the extra money.

Mt. Prospect school system is greatly in need of homes that can be rented to teachers, who have families with young children. The public does not hesitate to crowd the school with their offspring, but owners of homes that are in the rental class seem to hesitate in renting to a school teacher's family.

We believe in fair play. We hope that some owners of rental property who read this will phone an answer to CL. 3-7759.

We have from time to time said some nice things about Kimball Hill. He has again shown he is civic minded by renting homes to three teachers of the Palatine school system. There will be no "teacher-home" problem for the 115 teachers in the Palatine schools.

We now know how a woman feels when she meets another woman wearing the identical hat. Of course a straw hat is always a straw hat, but this year's Italian Milan straws have been so popular and are so numerous, that there is usually a half dozen males on every train wearing the same style hat—and to make matters worse, the same color hat band.

Out of respect to the others we are now going bareheaded. They are not going to call us a "copy-cat."

Members of Arlington Heights village board stayed in session Tuesday night until 2 a. m. They had a lot of worrying to do which is their excuse for the long session. They find themselves between the devil and the deep sea.

If they clamp down on the Consumers plant they are threatened with personal damage suit by that company. If they do not act, they were told Tuesday night the members would individually face a $3,000,000 suit by the adjoining property owners.

Those fellows have a bear by the tail and do not dare to let go. It is the hottest hot potato that any Arlington Board has had to face for some time. Besides, a campaign promise is involved.

The salary of an alderman is less than $1 an hour and it is all overtime.

Readers have a chance to test their knowledge by guessing how much a bushel weighs. Sure, it varies, but how much? See if you can find the answer in one of the stories appearing in this week's editions.

Over 2,000 readers of Paddock Publications called on us at our booth at the 4-H Fair last weekend. We were glad to see them. The good things they had to say about our newspapers encourages us to further efforts to improve our papers.

The checking of the questionnaires filled out by visitors has proven to be a real ballot-counting job, which will not be completed until next week.

Came across a 10-year-old tax bill the other day. It was interesting to note that within the decade, general taxes have advanced 100%. That is only 10% a year

Living expenses have nearly kept pace with taxes; babies are still way ahead.

Cement Plant Threatens Suit Against Board

Plan New Subdivision - If OK'd 800 More Homes for Arlington

Another big subdivision is in the planning stage for Arlington Heights. It involves approximately 246 acres of land, located north of Thomas, east of Wilke and south of Palatine road.

Trendle and Lowe, developers, informed the village board Tuesday night that the land was not in the village, but it was planned to annex the entire tract if possible. However, until such time as details regarding the development of the property are worked out, Trendle and Lowe sought to have 15 acres annexed at this time so they could begin immediate construction of 50 of the proposed 800 homes planned for the area. This tract is located north of Thomas and a quarter mile east of Wilke rd.

FIRST READING of the annexation ordinance for the 15 acres was held and has been filed with the clerk. Before the second reading is held a special committee of the board, Trustees Richard Bronwell, Robert Bishop and James Millay, and the village engineer will meet with Trendle and Lowe and their engineer to discuss the feasibility of such an annexation and what effect it would have on sewer and water services in Arlington Heights.

First reading of the tax levy ordinance was also held and it has been filed with the clerk. Action will be taken at the next regular board meeting.

Two ordinances had second readings and were passed at the meeting. One permits the licensing of wholesale food trucks making deliveries in Arlington Heights. They will pay a fee of $20 a year.

The other dealt with public improvements and provides that the village will now require developers to furnish a completion bond for all public improvements, namely—sewer, water, street, curb and gutter, and sidewalk—in one-and-a-half times the amount of the engineer's estimate. The ordinance also requires all developers to place a cash escrow of 15 per cent of the engineer's estimate, with the village, to be used as a protection in event of faulty construction.

THE ORDINANCE was passed by a vote of 4-2, with President Albert W. Goedke casting the 4th vote in favor of the ordinance. Trustees Bishop and Bronwell cast the negative votes. Trustee Frederick Weber was absent from the meeting.

First reading of an ordinance providing for an amendment to the zoning ordinance to grant a variation on the west side of N. State rd., just south of Thomas, to permit the erection of a medical center, was also held. It has been filed with the clerk and will be acted upon at the next board meeting.

The board adjourned at 2 a.m. until 8 p.m. August 30.

Angry Property Owners Also Ready to Sue

A "hot potato" was tossed back and forth among Arlington Heights village board members and the village president Tuesday night, with no one seeming to want to hang on to it for any length of time.

The "potato" was the Consumer's company cement batching plant, at 301 W. Northwest hwy., that had its business license revoked as of August 1. At its meeting August 9 the board ordered the police to start making arrests if the company continued operation despite the revocation of its license. Arrests were to be made beginning August 11.

This action was suspended by President Albert W. Goedke the morning of August 11 as a result of a letter received from the law offices of Cummings and Wyman, 1 N. LaSalle st., Chicago, representing Consumer's company. The letter advised the board that the firm would "endeavor to hold personally liable any official or employee of the village of Arlington Heights who caused unwarranted interference with the plant's operation."

THE LETTER questioned the authority of the village to license a ready-mix or batching plant, and if they had no authority to license "there can be no claimed violation of the ordinance." It further read, "The 'regulation' does not deal in any manner with the operation of the plant, but only with the manner of its construction. You granted a permit for the construction of the plant, and the plant was designed as the ordinance requires."

In its reasons for revoking the business licenses the village board had deemed the plant a nuisance and the letter said in that regard: "You have been informed in writing, and orally, on various occasions of the steps taken to meet complaints by residents of the village. These steps are securing the desired effect even though we have proceeded, in my judgement, considerably beyond what is necessary as a matter of law;—there is neither public nor private nuisance existing.

"THE ACTION of the village board purported to place an effective date in the future for revocation of license if unnamed conditions in the notice to us had not been corrected. We have taken the further steps, and no effort has been made by the village to ascertain the accuracy of our statement that they are effective. It is clear that the village's intention was to cause the operation to cease, and that the meeting of complaints, justified or otherwise, was actually not desired.

"The operation of this plant is not a nuisance as a matter of law on any theory. If you wish to try out the question of whether it is a public or private nuisance, we will be glad to expedite hearings in order to get an early conclusion."

Trustee John Hoover read a report from Chief of Police Carl H. Skoog who had made a special investigation of the plant's operation this week and had found the entire operation to be in good order and not creating a nuisance.

PROPERTY OWNERS, on the other hand, continued to blast the board on the nuisances created by the plant's operation. They claim no relief has been given, and threatened to file suit against the board if they did not take steps to abate the company's operation immediately.

It appeared that no matter what the board decided, a law suit was going to be involved. The board moved to appoint a committee of 2 to get outside legal consultation to determine once and for all whether or not the company is operating in violation of the non-conforming zoning use of the property. Trustees Hoover and Robert Bishop were appointed to the committee and will bring a recommendation back to the board at its adjourned meeting August 30.

In the meantime, the company continues to operate.

Engineers Report $270,000 Needed To Improve Creek

The report of the Weller Creek drainage area has been made to the governing bodies of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines by Consoer, Townsend and Associates, consulting engineers employed to survey the stream which serves an area of 13,693 acres. Point of discharge is into the river near Des Plaines rd. and Busse highway.

The engineers have found that in the early 1920's when certain highway bridges were constructed over Weller creek, about 95 per cent of the drainage was farm land and the total population of the three municipalities was less than $10,000.

At the present time less than 50 per cent of the drainage area is farm land or developed and the population in the area has increased to nearly 50,000!

A distance of about 32,000 ft. was measured along Weller Creek, disclosing that a considerable amount of silt and debris has accumulated in the creek bed, averaging in excess of 2 feet deep.

IN THEIR REPORT the engineers recommend:

1. Clean-out of creek and conduit.
2. Enlargement of creek cross section.
3. Enlargement of bridges and culverts.
4. Construction of a relief sewer from a location near the railroad bridge adjacent to the conduit entrance easterly and northerly to a point of discharge into the Des Plaines river.
5. Paving of creek section, a step "not economically feasible to undertake at this time."

TOTAL ESTIMATED project cost is $270,000 and the engineers state: "Because of the several political subdivisions involved in the Weller Creek drainage area no attempt has been made in the preparation of this report to outline a plan for financing the project costs and allocating the costs among the various parties to benefit from the proposed improvements. It is suggested that a committee be appointed, made up of one or more representatives from each of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines and the Weller Creek drainage district. This committee could determine the most practical means of providing project funds. Possible sources of funds might include the following:

1. Illinois Department of Highways for Northwest highway culvert.
2. The railroads affected.
3. The municipalities to be benefited.
4. The Weller creek drainage district.
5. Possible financing under recently-enacted state legislation."

Firemen Invite Residents to Street Dance

Arlington Heights fire department will hold its second annual free street dance this Saturday, beginning at 8 p.m. The event will be held on S. Dunton ave., between Campbell and Sigwalt streets. The general public is invited.

IN ORDER to satisfy the square dance enthusiasts, as well as those who prefer modern dancing, there will be 2 bands on hand, one at each end of the block to play for each kind of dancing. The commadores, a 5-piece orchestra will play for modern dancing, while Walter Meier, well known square dance caller, will feature his band for the square dancing.

Meier and his wife, Vera, who reside in Des Plaines, have been active in the square dance field for the past 12 years. For 6 years they have done outstanding work in teaching Arlington Heights folks how to square dance at the adult educational classes at the high school. They also are well known for their monthly publication, "The Midwest Dancer." a magazine of round and square dancing.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening and at midnight 3 gifts will be awarded including a 10 cubic foot upright General Electric freezer, Crosley air conditioner and Iron-rite mangle.

Special Sales Tax Can Be Big Aid In Village Financing

Estimates vary as to the returns a municipality would receive if it takes advantage of the half-cent sales tax. Based on the retail sales tax collected in 1954 by the state revenue department, in some villages it will equal the amount now being received for general corporate purposes by the municipalities from taxpayers.

Allowing the 6 per cent to be retained by the state to be offset by general increase in sales, Palatine would receive a net of $43,000, Mt. Prospect, $44,000 and Arlington Heights would collect $90,000 Its tax receipts are nearly $130,000.

Palatine and Wheeling expect to participate in all sales tax collections starting with September 1. Mt. Prospect may take similar action next week. Its businessmen are opposed to single action, but will approve of the collection if neighboring towns do the same. There is no indication that Arlington Heights is even considering the easy money. Barrington says it will wait upon action by Elgin.

Park Ridge has quietly adopted the required ordinance. Des Plaines has taken no action as yet, but has estimated that the tax would bring in an extra $150,000 a year into the village treasury.

The 1954 collections credited to each municipality and the number of taxpayers are:

Palatine,	143	$174,702
Arlington Hts.,	194	360,143
Mt. Prospect,	90	178,466
Wheeling,	62	57,132

Elk Grove Realty Jumps 40 Per Cent

County assessor Frank Keenan has released the assessed real estate values for 5 more Cook county townships.

The townships are Elk Grove, Cicero, Northfield, New Trier and Bremen.

Total assessors valuations for these townships is $406,989,558. This is an increase of 17.58 per cent over the 1954 assessment of $346,139,527, which totals almost $60,000,000.

Greatest gain was in Northfield, which showed a 39.62 per cent increase. Elk Grove was only slightly behind with a gain of 36.70 per cent.

Breakdown of the assessments by townships.

Elk Grove Township:

	1955	1954
Land	$ 7,577,427	$ 5,471,749
Bldg.	11,751,580	8,667,415
Total	$19,329,007	$14,139,164

Northfield Township:

	1955	1954
Land	$21,448,118	$13,249,538
Bldg.	40,648,989	31,224,878
Total	$62,097,107	$44,474,416

Percentage increases in Elk Grove in assessments for land were 38.48 per cent; buildings, 35.58 per cent, total increase of 36.70 per cent.

Increases in Northfield in assessments for land were 61.87; buildings 30.18 per cent, totaling 39.62 per cent.

Objections to the assessments can be filed with the Board of Appeals between August 18 and September 2nd.

Bishop Favors Pay-As-You-Go Improvements

Robert Bishop, Arlington Hts. alderman, is using the Fence Post this week in an appeal for support to the use of water department earnings to finance the immediate construction of $150,000 improvements to the water system without the issuance of bonds.

Some members of the board favor bonds which would make possible a reduction in water rates. The village water consultant questions the advisability of cutting water rates at this time.

Mayor Goedke recommended at the recent meeting of the board that a well and storage tank be placed on village property at the north end of Virginia Terrace, thereby assuring adequate pressure and supply for the northwestern part of the village.

The use of the Kennicott well has been further delayed by a jurisdictional dispute between the well drillers and plumbers. Union plumbers claim the right to set the pump, which has been done by the well drillers.

The plumbing union has notified the village that if village employees connect the pump, all union men will be pulled off other village projects.

Need Old Sheets!

Ever wonder what to do with those old torn sheets? Here is an answer!

The Northwest Suburban Chapter of the American Cancer Society, with offices located at 121 S. Emerson, Mt. Prospect, needs thousands of old sheets for making cancer bandages for patients being served out of these headquarters.

The sheets are used in making the dressings which are given free upon request to cancer patients being cared for at home. One patient, alone using this service is supplied with 66 dozen bandages every 2 weeks.

Anyone wishing to aid this worthy cause by donating old sheets is urged to call the Cancer headquarters immediately. The number is CLearbrook 3-8148. If no answer, call CLearbrook 3-5513. Sheets may be taken directly to headquarters at 121 S. Emerson, Mt. Prospect, between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., Monday through Friday.

Accidentally Shoots Self

William Frank, 17, Palatine, shot himself Friday when his gun was accidentally discharged as he was cleaning it.

Sprinkling Hours Are Evenings 6:00 To 8:00

Arlington Heights police say they are being "run ragged" by violations of the sprinkling rule. They do not have the time or manpower to stop illegal sprinkling. The legal hours are between 6 and 8 o'clock evenings, 7 days a week.

The sprinkling hours apply to both sides of the street. With more hot weather on the way, water users are asked to cooperate. Sprinkling at other hours could cause another water emergency as occurred 2 weeks ago.

40,000 See Prize Exhibits At 4-H Fair

The largest and most successful 4-H Fair in north Cook county closed Sunday night at Arlington Park race track with a total attendance of 40,00 for 3 days.

John Bickett, Farm Bureau adviser, said not only was there a greater number of exhibits, but the quality of exhibits was higher than in any of the fair's previous 9 years.

The fair featured 69 commercial exhibits, 650 awards to competing 4-H members, booth exhibits from 20 girls' 4-H clubs, and participation of 188 agricultural 4-H members.

The fair collected approximately $1,100 in parking fees. The money will be used to cover expenses for the current year.

South Cook county holds its 4-H Fair this weekend in Chicago Heights.

Winners of the 5 main merchandise prizes were R. Cosgren, 173 W. Ward, Northlake, a living room suite; Fred Marsh, Route 3, Box 61, Bensenville, air conditioner; R. Erickson, Route 1, Box 2, Palatine, a bicycle; Mr. Straight, Box 140, Fox River Grove, a rotisserie; and W. Heimsoth, 216 S. State rd., Arlington Heights, a deep fat fryer.

Mrs. C. Stuerhoff, 104 N. Pine, Mt. Prospect, won a coffee maker in a drawing at Paddock Publications booth.

A Lau electric fan was won by Mrs. Henry Sygnator, 22 S. Ridge ave., Arlington Heights, from the Tapper Central Heating co.

Non-Paralytic Polio

Two new cases of non-paralytic polio have been reported to the Cook County Department of Public Health.

In Evanston hospital are Mrs. Mary Jane Shurmer, 29, of 513 Fairview, Mount Prospect, and John Kloempken, 3, of 832 N. Forest, Arlington Heights.

Timothy Comeford of Arlington Heights was stricken with polio in Wausau, Wis., and is in St. Mary's hospital there.

Fire Chief Urges Immediate Action on New Equipment

Arlington Heights village board passed a resolution authorizing the advertisement for bids for sale of $25,000 in bonds for the purchase of fire department equipment, at its meeting Tuesday night.

A letter from the fire department, signed by Elroy Winkelman, fire chief, was read to the board. It pointed out the dire necessity of immediate action by the board to obtain additional fire fighting equipment, as well as additional facilities to house the equipment.

THE LETTER urged the board to employ an architect to prepare such plans. Trustee Robert Bishop informed the board plans for remodeling the present fire department quarters were already available and board members will meet with the fire department to go over said plans and discuss further problems in the department.

Chief Winkelman's letter also advised the board to begin thinking of getting additional volunteer firemen on the force and to consider a raise in pay for the volunteer firemen, who presently receive $2 a call.

Authorization was given to Ame construction company to employ village engineers to draw up plans and specifications for the paving of the east half of Yale ave., from Burgoyne to Thomas, including curb and gutter.

ENGINEERS WERE authorized to go ahead with plans and specifications for the paving of Grove st., from Bristol to Dryden place. It was also moved that notice be given property owners along that thoroughfare that a public hearing will be held regarding the paving, which is to be done by special assessment.

Trustee Forrest Davis cast a negative vote on this action, while the balance of the board, with the exception of Trustee Frederick Weber, who was absent, voted yes.

Trustee Bishop suggested a "companion action" to this motion be started to provide for the opening of Grove st. west to State rd. A portion of the street in that section has never been dedicated. No action was taken on the suggestion. Bishop also requested a report on the proposed improvement of Sigwalt st. from State rd., east to Davis st., but it was not available at this time.

Approval was given the high school to erect a scorer's booth to be attached to football bleachers and to overhang the Ridge ave. parkway approximately 2 feet.

Good Will Truck

The Good Will Truck will be in Arington Heights August 25. Anyone wishing the truck to stop for a contribution should call Clearbrook 3-7788 before that date.

Nurses Club 'Over the Top' in Hospital Pledge

Members of the Arlington Heights Nurses club were overwhelmed at the response its "doll of the year" project, slated to raise a $1,000, received from residents in the area to be served by the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center.

Though a final figure is not available at this time the fund is well over the original $1,000 pledge made by the club. The money will be turned over to the Northwest Community Hospital Center finance chairman by Mrs. George Reinhardt, Nurses club president, as soon as she returns from her vacation.

Cindy Woods, daughter of the Robert Woods, 401 S. Lincoln lane, Arlington Heights, has quite a surprise awaiting her when she returns from her vacation, as she is the lucky new owner of the beautiful doll and elaborate wardrobe, including a genuine mink cape, given away by the Nurses club.

A GROUP OF youngsters from Arlington Heights and Palatine, known as the Hansel and Gretel Players, can be proud of the results of their first production which added another $78 to the growing hospital fund. The children are so enthused that they announced their intention to give further productions as benefits for the hospital.

Mt. Prospect youngsters got on the hospital bandwagon this week too. A group of 5 girls, Donna and Kathy Boland, Bonnie Salzman, and her cousin, Janet Salzman of Tucson, Ariz., and Jane Oldaker, gave a play, "Alice's Tea Party," Sunday afternoon at the W. B. Salzman home, 404 S. Candota, Mt. Prospect. They raised $5.70 that will be turned over to the hospital finance committee

SINCE THE Nurses club announced its plans to raise $1,000 for the proposed hospital many individuals and groups have joined hands to aid this worthy cause. To date, $269.82 have been raised through various projects and turned over to the hospital committee. Word has reached the newspaper office that other benefits are being planned, but details are not available at this time.

With a continuance of this united effort the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center will indeed become a reality. The hospital is to serve residents of Elk Grove, Wheeling, Palatine, Barrington and Schaumburg townships.

Plan Development of Southwest Side Park; Contains 23 Acres

Plans for the development of the 23-acre park located in the southwest section of Arlington Heights were revealed to representatives of various local organizations in the village last Thursday night.

The park, which is owned outright by the Arlington Heights park district, is bounded on the north by Grove st., east by Fernandez, south by Fairview and west by Kennicott ave.

AT PRESENT streets surrounding the park are not improved but several new subdivisions are going up in the area, one of which has already promised to pave portions of Kennicott and Grove st. adjoining the park in lieu of the usual land grants required of developers when putting in new subdivisions.

Proposed plans for the new park include a swimming pool, the same size as the one in Recreation Park, tennis courts, ice skating pond, community house and an outdoor amphitheatre.

Edwad C. Wahl, president of the park board, also indicated to those atending the meeting, that the board planned to develop neighborhood parks in new subdivisions, which have been donated by various subdividers in acordance with provisions set up in a village ordinance. These parcels will be cleared, landscaped and supplied with playground equipment and will be primarily for the use of the smaller children who are too young to go to the larger parks by themselves.

MRS. CLARENCE Hendrickson, president of the Arlington Heights Womans club, informed the park board the Womans club is entered in a community achievement contest and one of their main aims was to work on the imporvement of park facilities in the area.

She indicated her group would be willing to "carry the ball' in the proposed development of both the big park and the smaller park areas. However, with a project as big as this she indicated the club would need the cooperation of several other organizations in the community in order to acquaint the public with the proposed development and its necessity to the community.

"How do you get her to cook in this weather?"

"Easy, I got her a new electric range!"

Keep your kitchen 10 degrees cooler with a new electric range!

Recent impartial baking tests (made by independent engineers of the R. W. Hunt Company) prove that modern electric ranges keep your kitchen an average of 10 degrees cooler than the most modern flame type ranges.

New Share-The-Cost Installation Plan saves you important money. Own an electric range for as low as $2.16 a week —installed!

Al: "Well, I know they're a lot cooler to cook on, but . . ."

Bill: "Man, that's not the half of it! Ann says our new electric's just as fast as any other kind. And it sure is cleaner. Haven't had to wash the kitchen walls once since we got it!"

Al: "Sounds kinda rich for my blood. What'd it set you back?"

Bill: "Not so much. We're paying it off a couple of bucks a week. Besides, they brought in 240-volt wiring when they put in the range. And boy, do we need it with all the appliances we've added. Hey, here comes the coffee!"

Gravel Pit 'Taboo' for Swimmers

Mrs. Merle Willis, representing the Utpadel family has asked Paddock Publications this week to announce that swimming is banned in the gravel pit owned by the family near the northeast corner of the Dundee-Wolf intersection in Wheeling.

"Children and young people have ignored the owners' protests," she said. "This is private property, posted with 'No trespassing' signs. Driveways having access to the pit have been marked 'private'. Several times this summer it has been necessary to call the police to evict parties from the area when their acttivities disturb residenst.

"The pit is unguarded for swimming, reaches depths of 20 feet and is not safe, especially for small children. Many young people from Des Plaines and Arlington Heights have been arriving late at night, driving their cars through neighbors' driveways and the property owned by the Chamber of Commerce to reach the pit. They repeatedly ignored warnings that the pit was unsafe and that they were trespassing on private property."

Forecast Some Decline In Farm Income Coming Years

by L. H. SIMERL

What is ahead for Illinois farmers during the next few years? Here are some ideas about the future and some reasons for them.

Farm incomes may decline a little, but few operators on good farms will want to trade places with average city workers. Many other farmers will take part—or full-time jobs off the farm.

The "cost-price squeeze" will continue— and maybe increase. It is a normal condition applying to all privately owned, competitively operated businesses.

Technical progress will be faster than ever before. This will call for more knowhow and more capital.

FARMERS in Illinois and other parts of the corn belt may be pinched by national farm programs promoted by farmers in other areas. Feed grown on acres diverted from cotton and wheat is rapidly taking markets that were formerly supplied by corn growers. This diverts income from farmers in the Corn Belt to those in other states.

Farmers are producing, and being paid for, more corn and other feeds than are being used. The government may not continue such a program much longer. Farmers may soon have to choose between lower prices and more rigid production controls. Neither road leads to more income.

WHEAT is still overpriced in U. S. Markets. Production is 1½ times as great as the need for food and seed. The surplus must be sold for export or feed at lower than present market prices. Big wheat states in the West could make it rough on corn-belt wheat growers.

Soybean procution has doubled since 1945? One-sixth of the crop is exported. Home markets for soybean oil and meal are growing. Prices for soybeans represent real market values. Price supports have been at moderate levels. There are no surplus stocks and no production controls, but both will come if additional large acreages are diverted from other crops to soybeans.

BEEF INDUSTRY has expanded greatly in the past five years, but demand is holding up well. There are no price supports, but also no surplus stocks or production controls. Supplies of beef and competition from other foods, are not expected to change much. Profits from cattle feeding will vary from year to year. But the industry as a whole is in a more favorable position than most other farm enterprises.

Hog production is about normal, but the share of family income spent for pork has dropped one - fifth in the past few years. On the other hand, stocks of corn are piling up, and the biggest use of corn is for hog feed. This adds up to continuing pressure for large production and low prices for hogs over the next few years. Lower prices for corn would make the hog business look more attractive.

THE OUTLOOK for dairying is uncertain. Production and use are now in close balance. But with less butterfat being used for butter than formerly, a relatively small change in milk production may cause a large change in prices. And low-cost vegetable oils mostly from soybeans and cotton seed, will provide increasing competition for butter fat.

The poultry business will continue its traditional year-to-year swings from high to low profits and back again. Big-scale operators will gain still more of the markets. Only egg producers who can sell a high-quality product for premium prices will make money consistently.

From the Police Blotter...

Vandals were at work with knives again this past week. Arthur Langerock, 203 N. Douglas, Arlington Heights, reported someone had slashed his plastic swimming pool. It had 8-inch slashes in 2 places.

Jim Utpadel, Wheeling, reported to Arlington police that 2 hub caps were stolen from his 1955 Buick while it was parked at the Arlington Theatre parking lot.

Art Jacobs, 220 E. Northwest hwy., told police that young children had opened lime bags stored at a new home under construction and had dumped the lime all around the premises.

Charles H. Cordes, 1111 N. State, told police that while he was driving his car in the 300 block of N. State rd. a young boy was in the street. When he sounded his horn to get him off the street, the boy threw a stick at his auto and it went through the windshield of his car.

A 2-car collision at the intersection of State rd. and Park st., at 11 a.m. August 12, resulted in the hospitilization of Mrs. Hazel M. Krueger, 735 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. She was treated by Dr. R. M. Fitch and then taken to Resurrection hospital. She suffered from shock, a concussion and minor injuries to both knees.

Driver of the other auto was Lester T. McAuliffe, 524 Banbury rd. McAuliffe was headed east on Park and Mrs. Krueger was traveling south on State rd., when the accident occurred.

Glenview Days Are August 20 And 21

Glenview is getting itself all primed for the big event of the year, Glenview Days, which are August 20 and 21.

The festival is being held at Waukegan rd, Glenview days grounds in the village.

Among special attractions will be a hobby show of 40 booths of hobbies displayed by local residents, square and modern dancing with a waltzing contest, games and contests for children, the Glenview Lancers Drum and Bugle corps, the Glenview Junior high band, and rides, games, and refreshments.

A Red Cross mobile first aid unit will be on the ground.

Yankee Picnic

Entire families of the Yankee team of the Arlington Heights Little League attended a picnic at the home of Mrs. Lyons, 318 W. South, July 30, as a conclusion for another good year in the American League. Although not successfully defending their 1954 championship, the Yankees still finished a strong second behind the league and Little League champion Red Sox.

The team autographed balls for their manager Merv Fink and coach Paul Tossman.

Your Physician is capable, sincere, skillful, and learned, but he is not a worker of, "Miracles." Years ago prescriptions usually contained many ingredients in the hope that one of them would help. Recovery was slower.

Nowadays your Physician searches for the exact cause of your illness, and often writes a one ingredient prescription that gives best results. Therefore do not rush from one physician to another wildly. Give your Physician enough time. Such diagnosis is not easy, but once made, recovery comes speedily.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George B. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

To most citizens, bewildered by increasingly complex problems of government, a check-list issued by General Electric company offers a yard-stick by which government proposals can be measured.

1. Is it necessary? Or is it something that is not really needed, or perhaps, already being provided by a private or public group?

2. Can we afford it? Remember, there is no limit to what we would like, but there is a limit to what we can afford.

3. What will it cost ultimately? Many proposals are like icebergs — only a small fraction of the total cost is apparent on the surface.

4. HOW WILL it affect basic liberties? If it imposes unreasonable or illegal restraints on your life or that of others, it should be vigorously opposed.

5. Is it in the balanced best interest of all? If it is designed to benefit a small group or special interests while taking unfair advantage of others, work for its defeat.

6. Is it a "foot-in-the-door" proposition? Compromising a little now may bring an oppressive burden later either in more regulations or more taxes or a combination of both.

7. DOES IT PLACE too much power in the hands of one individual or group? Once decisive power is granted to a non-elected public official, a commission or a municipal authority, the private citizens lose effective control.

8. Does it recognize the importance of the individual and the minority? This is a cornerstone of our republic.

9. Is its appeal based on emotional propaganda or facts? The farther a proposition gets away from facts, the more critical one should be.

10. Does it square with your moral convictions? If so, fight for it. If not, oppose it.

County To Study Use Of Septic Tanks In Rural Areas

The building and zoning committee of the County Board of Commissioners last week recommended a committee of experts be appointed to draft amendments to the county building and zoning codes.

The amendments would govern new housing sub-divisions as to size of lots, soil absorption, and insulation and inspection of sanitary systems.

The new amendments are aimed at making the installation of septic tanks — in areas where there are no central sewage systems — more flexible depending on the lot. The board had been considering increasing the size of lots on which septic tanks could be placed from 7,500 square feet to 20,000 square feet.

The board decided that more legislation was needed than merely increasing lot size after hearing from three sanitary district engineers. They were C. W. Klassen of the State Department of public health, D. W. Evans of the public Health Service, and Henry Reahrig of the Federal Housing Authority.

All three agreed that public sewage systems were best for suburban sub-divisions. But they said septic tanks could be used if used correctly. They said increasing the size of the lots on which tanks could be used would increase chances for proper sanitation, but they said the problem was much greater than size of lots alone. (B5

Farm for Retarded Youngsters Begins Fifth Season Here

The Lake Zurich Farm for Children, now in its fifth season, is dedicated to breaking down the barriers of ostracism, isolation and rejection which society has traditionally imposed upon mentally handicapped children.

Its director, Mrs. Lotte Steinfeld, said that the public is rapidly becoming more understanding for these retarded children and "their right to a happy life."

THE FARM'S program is similar to that in any summer camp. There are daily swimming periods at a private beach in Lake Zurich, a variety of indoor and outdoor games and sports, musical activities, and the added features of farm life, such as caring for animals, working in the vegetable garden, and horseback riding.

The boys and girls come from special classes in public schools, private and parent-sponsored schools, and then some who have never been to school.

Camp staff consists of 6 counselors, a cook, and caretaker.

WHEN THE summer camp started its program 5 years ago, people at beaches and playgrounds would stare and draw away from the children, said Mrs. Steinfeld. Now they are interested in the problem and how it is handled and engage in conversations with the counselors.

"Parents all over the country have banded together in recent years," said the director, "and have made the public aware that something must be done and can be done for these children, in the form of specialized schools, recreational set-ups, and sheltered workshops."

Two years ago Mrs. Steinfeld started a year-round day school for children from the surrounding countryside. It will resume September 15 with 12 pupils enrolled. This staff consists of 2 full time teachers, 2 part-time teachers, a speech consultant, and volunteer workers. (B5

Arlington Policemen Save Diesel Freight From Serious Wreck

Two Arlington Heights policemen averted a train wreck early Thursday in a 90-mile-an-hour chase with a fast diesel freight of the Chicago and North Western railway.

The train was bound at 55 miles an hour from Janesville, Wis., to the Proviso freight yards near Bensenville.

Sgt. Oscar Johnson and policeman Irvin McDougall were in their squad car on the northwest outskirts of Arlington Heights when the freight came barreling through.

McDougall noticed a flaming hotbox on a gondola car in the center of the train. Johnson whipped the squad onto Northwest hwy. parallel to the tracks and raced the train southeast at 90 miles an hour with siren screaming and red light flashing.

The engineer sighted the squad car's spotlight and stopped his engine on the outskirts of Mount Prospect.

As he did so, the journal box fell under the wheels of the gondola car.

Train crewmen said a wreck was certain within a mile if the train had not been stopped.

Seek Volunteer Plane Spotters To Aid Observer Corps

Volunteers are being sought to assist the Des Plaines post of the ground observer corps, which is directly connected with the U. S. air force air defense command.

Observers work directly with the U. S. air force, as the ground observer corps is the eyes and ears of the air force. Radar is only effective for planes which are flying at an altitude over 5,000 feet. The enemy, knowing this, would try to attack by coming in under that altitude.

Chicago is considered the number 1 vulnerable spot for an attack in the U. S. and the Des Plaines post is a vital skywatch. It is not necessary that volunteer plane spotters be able to identify types of air craft and training takes about 10 minutes.

After 12 hours observing silver wings are awarded. Anyone wishing to volunteer for 2 hours of watching each week is asked to please call Mrs. Eugenie F. Tarbert, VAnderbilt 4-1064 or VA 4-4096. (B5

Adult Night School

Those desiring an adult night school bulletin from Arlington Heights high school should call the high school office, CLearbrook 3-0200, and order one. Names and addresses will be taken and the bulletins will be mailed shortly after September 1.

In the past the high school sent bulletins through the mail, addressing them to boxholder or householder, but new postal regulations prohibit this form of mailing.

Thus the detailed information on the night school program will not automatically be sent out to every resident as in the past.

The school will be glad to mail a copy to anyone calling the high school office with a request. Other information on the night school program will be published in this paper.

"Please bring your Blueberry Coffee Cake," is the request most often made of Mrs. Mildred E. Morse by the Plum Grove Garden club when they are planning a bake sale.

For this delicious cake, devised by Mrs. Morse, has won a following among the customers of Palatine's bake sales.

Modifying a recipe which she clipped out of the paper many years ago, Mrs. Morse experimented until the cake suited her taste. The result is a luscious combination of a not-too-sweet dough, covered with plump, juicy blueberries and topped by a brown-sugar crumb topping.

It can be served as a coffee cake or dessert, and can be accompanied by ice cream or whipped cream if desired.

This is a timely recipe for we are in the heighth of the blueberry season. However, Mrs. Morse can make this cake all year 'round, for she freezes blueberries and has them available at any time. An acquaintance of hers has made this cake substituting other fruits for the blueberries with excellent results.

The Morses live at 491 Hellen rd. in Palatine. In addition to her garden club activities, Mrs. Morse is a member of the Palatine Woman's club, the Book Review club, African Violet society and is chairman of Mary circle of the First Methodist church.

Blueberry Coffee Cake

1/3 cup sugar
¼ cup margarine
1 cup flour
Pinch of salt
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1 egg
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Work the dry ingredients and the margarine together as you would for a pie crust. Push to one side of bowl.

Add the egg, milk and vanilla and whip with a fork. Stir in the dry ingredients.

Spread very thin in a shallow, greased and floured, 6 by 10 inch tin.

Sprinkle one-half box blueberries evenly over top of batter.

Make the topping by combining:
1/3 cup flour
½ cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter

Spread evenly over blueberries.

Bake for 35 to 40 minutes in 350 degree oven.

Serve with ice cream, whipped cream or plain. Serves 6.

Carol Ann Grandt And Ray Schmidt Wed July 2

A wedding in which Miss Carol Ann Grandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Grandt of Hintz rd., Wheeling, became the bride of Ray A. Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt Schmidt of Northbrook, took place in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony July 2 in Immanuel Lutheran church, Glenview.

The Rev. Ervin C. Rodehorst officiated at the service in a setting of white gladioli and candlelight.

The bride wore a gown of lace and net over white satin fashioned princess style with high neckline and stand-up collar. Her fingertip veil was fastened to a crown headpiece and she carried a white orchid surrounded by white roses.

Miss Blanche Grandt, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Carl and Miss Ethel Schmidt, sister of the groom. All wore identical gowns of blue and headpieces of blue plastic flowers and carried bouquets of pink roses. Karen Schmidt, counsin of the groom, was flower girl and Dennis Jacob, ring bearer.

Best man was Fred Schmidt, brother of the groom, and Edward Kronn and Delbert Rosenow were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, reception was held in the Wheeling Amvets hall after which the newlyweds left for a wedding trip at the Wisconsin Dells. They are now residing in Milwaukee ave., Northbrook. The groom is employed by Knoll Grain truck service in Des Plaines.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it ever permissible for the man to walk on the inside of the pavement when accompanying a woman?

A. Only if they are making their way through a rough, jostling crowd, and the man can better protect the woman by keeping on the inside.

Q. Which is the correct form of introduction, "Mrs. White, this is my husband," or, "Mrs. White, this is Mr. Walker?"

A. The correct form is, "Mrs. White, this is my husband."

Q. When should the bridegroom give his gifts to his best man and ushers?

A. Usually, these gifts are put at the men's places at the bachelor dinner.

Q. If a man is accompanying a girl who is driving her own car, should he make an offer to do the driving?

A. It would be better not. Some women are sensitive about their driving and might think such an offer reflects on their ability to drive.

Q. Some of my girl friends, who have become engaged recently, have given their fiances engagement presents. Is this a new custom — and proper?

A. This is neither a new custom nor necessary. There is nothing improper about it, however, if the girl wishes to do so.

Q. If a man offers his hand first to a woman, upon being introduced, what should she do?

A. She should accept it, of course, and without hesitation.

Q. When a bride has received a gift from the office force, consisting of perhaps a dozen employees, how should she acknowledge it?

A. She may write a personal letter of thanks to the chief clerk, office maneger, or the person she knows had charge of the contribution towards the gift, asking this person to thank the others.

Q. Is it necessary for a hostess to rise when greeting a guest who has just arrived, and other guests are already present?

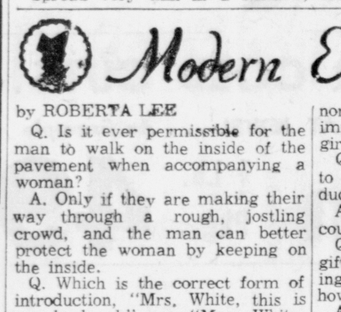

A. Yes, always. A hostess is very discourteous who does not rise to greet every guest.

Q. Is it all right to use the telephone to acknowledge receipt of a gift?

A. A sincere, personally written note of thanks is in much better form.

Q. When drinking any kind of refreshment, isn't it proper to leave a little of the liquid in the glass?

A. Not necessarily. One may very properly drink it all.

"HANSEL AND GRETEL"

A new source of entertainment for local youngsters came to light Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church when an enthusiastic group of young people presented their first play, "Hansel and Gretel," for the benefit of the proposed Northwest Community Hospital center.

Cheered by the audience's response and the $7& which they were able to turn over to this worthy cause, the Hansel and Gretel Players, as they have elected to call themselves, are looking forward to producing a series of benefit plays for the children of the town.

These ambitious thespians are the dramatics students of Mrs. G. E. Staahl, who served as director and was the only adult connected with the production. Publicity, ticket sales, set design and construction, costumes and special effects were all the work of, and created by, the children. The attractive sets, achieved by the use of gay colors and the simplest materials, were in themselves worth the price of admission, and represented a week's hard labor on the part of the youngsters, who then donned their costumes and doubled as the cast.

To provide a showcase for individual talent, each scene was played by a different cast, but the changes were handled so smoothly there was no lag in the action of the play. No prompting was provided, but if there were any lapses of memory the characters handled them with such poise that the audience was unaware of anything amiss.

Participating in the cast were: Debbie Service, Susan Staahl, and Karen Meyer as Gretel; Rory Foster, Phyllis Muran, Bob Finch as Hansel; Linda Wilds as the Sandman; Roberta Hill as the stepmother; Dempster Leach as the father; Kay Krebsbach, Annette Schroeder, Mary Lou Dunderdale as the Witches; and Debbie Service and Carol Staahl as blackbirds.

Not appearing on stage, but hard at work behind the scenes were Teddy, Eddie, and Jim Staahl.

As they gain in experience and develop the art of voice projection these children should attract wide attention in their future plays, opening a new medium of dramatic entertainment — children's plays for and by children—in this area.

Superior Coach Sales Will Handle Unique New Wells Cargo

Final arrangements have just been made by Superior Coach Sales co. of Palatine for the dealership of industry's newest contribution to the transportation field, the Wells Cargo.

This revoutionary new vehicle is a junior semi-trailer designed for use with pickups or other light trucks. It is free-standing and can be hooked up by one man in a matter of just a few minutes. With its payload capacity of 4 tons (710 cubic feet of enclosed space), it enables the pickup truck owner to transport large loads quickly and economically, while retaining the pickup truck's flexibility for lighter, smaller cargo.

Farmers, contractors, manufacturers, retailers, wholesalers or any one who owns a pickup (or who is now operating a large truck in order to haul only occasional big loads) can profitably use a Wells Cargo. It is reported that many owners can get back their investment in a very short time.

Designer of the Wells Cargo is Maynard W. Wells, president of Prairie Schooner, Inc., one of the largest and oldest firms in the mobile home industry.

Stan C. Lindstrom, president of Superior Coach Sales, estimates a big local market for the Wells Cargo. He advises that more complete information is available from Superior Coach Sales salesrooms at 344 Colfax st., Palatine. (ACM

Free Church Bible School Begins Monday

Rev. Charles G. Will, pastor of Arlington Heights Free church, announced to the congregation last Sunday, plans for the summer Bible school to begin next Monday and run through Thursday, September 1. Closing exercises will be held September 1 at 8 p.m.

The theme, "Join the Parade," will be inaugurated the first day with the presentation of a parade hat to each child. The studies will be Bible courses, age-graded, with the daily program arranged to the proper attention span of each age group under trained and devoted teachers. Games, stories, group activities, individual handicraft work, singing and Bible stories will make up the daily well-rounded schedule.

Rev. Mr. Will also announced the following departments and studies to be pursued during the 9 days of Bible school: beginners ages 4 and 5, "God's World and God's Work;" primary, ages 6 to 8, "God's Family;" junior, age 9 to 11, "The Christian's Time and Talents;" and junior high, ages 12 to 14, "Answering Why's of Young People."

The Bible school will be held daily from 9 to 11:30 in the building which the Free church is purchasing from the Methodist congregation at Dunton and St. James in Arlington Heights. Parents may feel free to send their children whether or not they have attended the Free church services.

Summer Reading Club Deadline September 3

There are only 2 more weeks left to take out books for the summer reading club. Have your youngsters participated by turning in their required number of reports? The first 4 grades must read 5 books and the upper 4 grades, 9 books.

Although there is a party planned for those who have read enough books, the children find the real reward comes from the books themselves. The library has bought about 400 new books this summer, for all ages, and some of the most popular ones have been:

Squadron Alert! A civil air patrol adventure story by Col. John B. Stanley.

The Wright Brothers. The story of their first flight. Written by Madge Haynes.

The Black Stallion's Sulky Colt. A new horse story by Walter Farley.

Lady and the Tramp. A take-off on the new Walt Disney film.

September 3 will be the last day reports may be taken out, and all reports must be in by September 17. After that date invitations will be mailed to all who have completed their requirements.

Tax Collections At The Half;

Collection of the second installment of the 1954 real estate taxes reached the half-way mark last Saturday. The deadline in the country towns is Saturday, August 27.

Local collectors report that payments have been picking up as the deadline nears and they all expect a big last week's rush next week.

Taxing units such as the schools, villages, etc., are interested in seeing the local collectors make as big a collection as possible, as schools will soon open for the next season and all school districts have greatly increased costs and are looking for all the money possible to meet their ever growing budgets.

Taxes paid to the local collectors are quickly available to the various taxing bodies who are always anxious about the collections so they can see how they are going to stand financially.

Local collectors always make as big an effort as possible to make a good collection and taxpayers are cooperating better each year in making their payments to the local collectors.

There is only one full week after this one to make tax payments to the township collectors who have been instructed by Herbert C. Paschen, county treasurer, to close on Saturday, Aug. 27, which becomes the deadline for those who have not paid 1954 taxes.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Vacations

Vacations are in the news and families in the meadows all seem to be having a wonderful summer.

Marge and Bob Blim of Bob-O-Link and their son, Bruce, have just returned from a 2-week stay in northern Wis. They traveled up the Mississippi river to Duluth and spent most of their time at a resort on Cranberry lake, Wis., where fishing was excellent as evidenced by the 75 pounds of fish now stored in their home freezer.

Marilyn Talo of Bob-O-Link was vacationing for 2 weeks at Golden lake in northern Mich. She was the guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Munson of Chicago. The new twin sons of the Talo family, born 3 months prematurely on July 7, are still in Presbyterian hospital. Kenneth now weighs 4 pounds 6½ ounces and Andrew weighs 2 pounds 9½ ounces. The whole Talo family is looking forward to the homecoming of the little boys.

On Cabin Cruiser

Ethel and Ray Larson spent a relaxing day last Friday on a cabin cruiser, the property of friends. Terri Larson has been at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haas of Des Plaines for a week.

Bud and Jane Redeen enjoyed last weekend on a car trip to West DePere, Wis. where they attended the wedding and reception of Jane's cousin, Thomas Anthony Schoultz, and Miss Doris Mae VandeHei August 13. Jane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Ploetz of Wassau, Wis., and many old-time friends were especially pleased to see the Redeens.

Doris Potratz and children, Evan and Martin, left on a train trip last Tuesday for New Hampton, Ia, where they spent the rest of the week visiting their grandparnts, Mr. and Mrs. Potratz. Friday young Martin celebrated his birthday, an occasion for which Grandma always makes a beautiful cake with trimmings. Reuben joined them Friday evening and drove the family back Sunday.

Picnic Supper

Kathy, Tommy, and Patrick Holleran enjoyed an outing with their parents last Tuesday. Special attractions were a picnic supper and a trip to Kiddieland where "real, live" ponies stole the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Larson and children returned Sunday from a week's vacation at the summer cottage of Ruth's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Christensen, in Green Bay, Wis. Also visiting at the cottage were Ruth's brother, Jack, and wife and all enjoyed several days of swimming and fishing. Friday the Larsons drove back to Madison to spend a couple of days with Ken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson.

Last week Edith and Chuck Schroeder and their sons, Craig and Brian were vacationing at a cottage on Wonder lake. The cotage will be available to them for the rest of the summer so coming weekends will find the Schroeder family enjoying themselves up at the lake.

Vacation At Home

A vacation at home with short day-time trips was enjoyed by Ed and Pearl Moeller and son Richard. They went to Cubs Park twice to root the Cubs to victory, spent a day at Brookfield zoo, and made several trips to local parks for picnic outings.

Mrs. Walter Vartanian has been in Ohio for an indefinite stay at the home of her daughter who has just had her first child.

Reunion Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Orlowski and their children, Bobby, Connie and Jimmy, left Friday evening for a weekend stay on Lake Shangrala in Wis. Sunday a family reunion picnic was held there when about thirty members of Henry's family came out to spend the day.

Elaine and Howard Johnson enjoyed last Sunday with Elaine's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sickels of Sarasota, Fla., her father, Mr. Sickels, and family of Delphos, Ohio and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Sickels of Chicago. It was a 4-generation reunion, which concluded the day with a dinner.

Birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. B. Vosburgh recently entertained her family with a birthday celebration in honor of her mother, Mrs. Demling, and her nephew, Chickie Kolinger, who was 2 years old. With them were Mr. John Demling and son, Johnny. Mr. and Mrs. George Kaad and sons, Jimmy and Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. Chick Kolinger and son, Chickie and Rosemary's uncle Mr. Eiser. Bill's mother, Mrs. Marie Vosburgh ended a 3-day vacation with the Vosburghs last Friday. During her stay, the family visited Hawthorne Mellody farm and spent a day swimming in Wauconda.

A lot of company was seen at the home of Carol and Wayne Wilken of Bob-O-Link Sunday. Donald and Joyce Stevenson and son, Joey of Aurora, were invited out for dinner and spent the day. The Wilkens and Stevensons have been friends since the mens' army days when they were stationed at Fort Hood in Temple, Tex. In order to make it a real reunion, they called Betty and Larain Jenkins, of Midland, Mich., long distance and recalled the good times the 3 couples enjoyed together when they were all in Texas together. Sunday afternoon Mrs. William Riley, daughter, Patty, and twin sons, Terry and Buddy, of Oriole lane and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sett and their children, Steven, Valerie and Jerry of Chicago, came out to join in the fun.

Colonel and Mrs. Frank L. Coleman were entertained at the Henry J. Robotkay home Sunday. With them was a mutual friend, Mrs. Lee Benham who is enroute to join her husband, CWO Lee Benham, in Japan. He has just completed a tour of duty in Korea. Col. Coleman, CWO Benham and Maj. Robotkay originated their friendship and recall many interesting experiences while serving together during World War II.

Unexpected Guests

Vic and Anne Incinelli had unexpected guests who arrived in a car with Hawaii license plates Saturday. Their visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Sanders Jr., of California, who recently returned from a 10-month stay in Honolulu. The Sanders, together with their sons, Stephen and Dannie, plan to visit friends in Cleveland and return to California in October. The Sanders and Incinellis had not seen each other for 10 years when the men were both in the service and stationed at San Francisco.

Hospitalized

Mike Doyle entered Lutheran Deaconess hospital last Friday. His family hopes to have him home within a few days. Previous to this Mike helped his brother, Ricky, celebrate his 7th birthday with his playmates Tommy Seymour, Billy and Dicky Cody and Billy McReynolds at Lake Zurich on the Whitney farm. They all enjoyed a cool swim and the birthday refreshments of cake and ice cream.

Mrs. Betty Dowiarz atended a wedding shower for her intended sister-in-law, Miss Lorraine Orzt in Chicago last Sunday.

Dorothy and Don Walsh, Arlette and Bob Klein and Betty and Art Nelson enjoyed Proctor and Gamble's annual open house recently. This is an event looked forward to by the employees of Proctor and Gamble.

Ray Doyle, treasurer of the Property Owners association, made payment to Merle Guild post of the American Legion of Arlington Heights, for the large tent which housed a game at the fair. The tent is now the property of the association and will be used at future community functions.

New Fad

A new fad seems to be hitting the neighborhood. Several back yard play houses have made their appearance. The first was erected in the Bethke's yard and is now occupied by Karen and Gail and their friends. The Jarm children, Nancy, Freddie, Bobbie, Billy and Tommy have just completed their fine structure and the Kent, David and Nancy and Joanne Nelson's club house is under construction.

August 19, 20 and 21 the grand opening of Stan's Standard service station located on route 83 and Foundry rd. will be celebrated. There will be free gifts for everyone with some special prizes, power lawn mower, small electric appliances and many more items. The station is owned by Stan Polly of 404 Bob-O-Link rd. and everyone in the Meadows is wishing him the best of luck.

About Your Health

Early each September a new generation of students makes its appearance in the schools for the first time. Most of these youngsters who are approaching life outside the shelter of the home for the first time will develop powers of adjustment, both physically and emotionally, to the new environment. A certain number, however, find it difficult to meet supervision brought about by entrance into school life, according to the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society.

The foresight of some parents has sent many of these children to their doctors for a physical examination before school opens. By it many defects have been discovered and, it is to be hoped, remedied.

THE PARENT of the child entering school for the first time should be understanding and sympathetic with the child and help him meet the new problems that arise. The child, for instance, will pick up words or traits from other children which are undesirable, through usually meaningless; they must be eliminated by patient effort.

Patience will also be necessary to answer the many questions brought on by the instruction at school; a child's curiosity is a natural development and should be satisfied.

Care must be exercised in the handling of children who will show excitability on mingling with others.

PARENTS SHOULD remember that careful training will help the child to adjust more easily to the new life of learning as apart from the protected atmosphere of the home.

Proper sleep is especially important for the child starting to school. Some experts recommend one to two hours a day in bed each afternoon for children from the ages of six to thirteen, and these afternoon naps should be encouraged until they seem to delay the going to sleep in the evening. Children under seven or eight should sleep twelve hours daily. Sleep is an important factor in the development of the child.

THE ENTRANCE into school is also a good time to lay stress on adhering to good health habits. Good posture, cleanliness and neatness and proper diet should be encouraged as much as possible, because it is in these early years that habits and conditioning which bear on the child's future are acquired forever.

In homes where good health habits have been encouraged from early infancy, there is little need for this warning. But the child coming from a home lax about good hygiene may be ridiculed and teased to a point where an emotional complex develops that will persist for years.

Apportionment Maps Out For Public Use

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier today announced the publication of a booklet containing judicial, congressional, senatorial and representative apportionment maps and descriptions. Copies are being sent to all county clerks, members of the general assembly, newspapers and radio and television stations.

The booklet is the first one showing Illinois House and Senate Districts drawn up by the 1955 session of the Legislature following adoption of the re-apportionment amendment to the State Constitution in the 1954 general election, Secretary Carpentier said.

Margaret Ann Cormack Marries Kenneth Rash

Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth Alan Rash are now residing in Oceanside, Cal. after their marriage August 6 in the First Presbyterian church, Racine, Wis. Mrs. Rash is the former Margaret Ann Cormack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Cormack of Racine and Lt. Rash is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund A. Rash Jr., 19 S. William st., Mt. Prospect.

The candlelight ceremony was performed at 7 p.m. by Dr. Francis P. Ihrman amid a background of summer flowers and greens. Organist was Dr. John F. Carre and soloist was Mrs. Robert S. Wilson who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Song of Ruth."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. It was fashioned floor length with scoop neckline trimmed with irridescent sequins. Her silk illusion veil was finger tip in length and was held in place by a French bonnet of chantilly lace with pearls and irridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of baby orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Mary Cormack served as her sister's maid of honor wearing a yellow silk gown made with fitted bodice, push-up sleeves and cuffed neckline. Emergency Telephone Numbers

How many of you really know the right emergency telephone numbers for either the fire or police departments? I'm willing to bet not many of you can score 100% in the right answers. Right now, when there is no immediate necessity, is the time to be sure the proper telephone numbers are within immediate reach when they are needed. If you have one of those green plastic telephone book covers so many residents have received, there are a couple of emergency numbers listed at the top. These are the Arlington Heights numbers—not the numbers for Rolling Meadows residents. Why not take a piece of adhesive tape and paste it across the numbers listed there. Then in the place for the fire department number write "711" which is the number of the Palatine operator. A call to the Palatine operator will report your fire to the Palatine rural fire department which services Rolling Meadows. In the space for the police department you should have Clearbrook 5-2414 written. That is the new Rolling Meadows police department number. For handy reference you might also like to add your own doctor's number, and possibly the number of the Rolling Meadows city hall — Clearbrook 3-8343. Remember, in all cases of emergency if you can't find the proper number if you will call your telephone operator she will help you.

Street Dance

Be sure to circle August 27 on the calendar as that's the date set for the Community street dance sponsored by the Guys and Dolls Teenage club and the Junior Hi Fellowship club. The 2 youth groups which take in young people from 10 to 18 years are hoping to raise funds for their many contemplated activities as well as introduce their groups to the community through this dance. The Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club has agreed to operate a food stand at the dance, serving coffee and cake as well as hot sandwiches with all profits going to the 2 youth groups. With youth problems rising on all sides, these enthusiastic young people from our own city deserve the support of everyone in thir efforts to create activities and clubs for their groups. Helping the kids raise funds for their work will be the easiest job you've ever done, and they promise you will really have a terrific time doing it. The band for the street dance will play the most danceable music you've ever heard here in Rolling Meadows. There will be food and soft drinks on hand. Tickets are only 50c, and the kids will be around selling them from door to door this coming week.

Community Calendar

You'll note this we have tried a new innovation—A Community Calendar for Rolling Meadows. We'd like to hear comments on it. If you find it really helpful we'll be keeping it up. Maybe it will help uncross a few of those crossed-up dates which seem to keep popping up. Anyway there it is for you all. All organizations who want their dates included on the calendar should get in touch with me at Clearbrook 3-8125. We'd like to include as many dates as possible.

Activities Directory

The telephone of your reporter is kept pretty busy, both day and night, in a vague resemblance of "Information Please" answering questions as to who and where certain activities are available. Getting new and old residents interested in community activities is the purpose of this column, but perhaps it will prove to be even easier to gain the information you may want by consulting the Activities Directory for the first time next week.

New Deadline

The growing amount of news which must be included each week in your Rolling Meadows column has necessitated a new definite deadline for news. All news to be printed on these pages must be received by Monday night at the very latest for publication on the following Thursday. News received Tuesday mornings will of necessity from this issue on be included in the following week's news. We're sorry, but this is the only solution to an almost impossible problem of gathering and editing the news in a brief period of time. Possibly if you find the telephone of your Rolling Meadows editor busy Monday evenings, you may have better luck in reaching Ginger Groves at Clearbrook 3-1251. Ginger is my faithful assistant and will be glad to take your news at any time you are unable to reach me.

You haven't forgotten the second annual outing of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association to be held September 4, have you? There will be races and prizes for the children, and door prizes and free beer for their parents. There will be candy, ice cream, pop and balloons on hand for all the kiddies. The highlight of the day for the children will be "BeBop, The Clown" who will perform all sorts of magic for the youngsters.

The picnic is restricted to association members this year, however. Residents are reminded their dues are only $2 per year with a $1 initiation fee for new members. The prizes and free materials available at the picnic are alone worth this amount, not to mention the many other services the association offers the community. A simple telephone call to Helen Macior at Clearbrook 5-0933 or Eleanor Keller at Clearbrook 3-2840 will bring the delivery of your membership card to your door. They will also gladly give you any further information you may desire.

Junior Hi Club

Hey kids! Have you heard about the Junior Hi Club Splash Party tomorrow night? Everyone in the community between the ages of 10 and 14 is welcome. The group is meeting at the Barn at 6:30 p.m. for travel to a nearby lake. The only assistance still needed is transportation. Several adults are still needed to drive the young people to their destination and to see to their return as well. It is hoped that sufficient parents will volunteer for the task, thus enabling the entire group of Junior Hi's to attend the Splash Party.

The hayrack ride held by the group last Friday night was a complete success. There were 36 young people on hand for the festive outing. The racks were driven to Deer Grove and back to Rolling Meadows.

Women's Bowling

An important meeting of all gal bowlers will be held next Thursday, August 25, at the Barn at 7:30 p.m. It is imperative that all bowlers be on hand for this important meeting. This fee must be paid by every bowler, and even if it is absolutely impossible to personally attend the Thursday meeting it will be necessary to arrange to make such payment in some other way by that date. It is hoped the meeting will prove to be a pleasant social period and refreshments will be served by the bowling officers and captains.

Gail Denise is the little daughter of Lola and Earl Kolb of 2903 Lark court, and has an older brother, Leonard, 11, and an older sister, Debbie, 4.

A dinner was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Teutsch of Arlington Heights last Sunday, August 14, in honor of the christening of her granddaughter, Dawn Lorraine. Dawn Lorraine is the new daughter of Ben and Futh Gomez of 2701 George court. The little baby was baptized at the First Prersbyterian church in Arlington Heights by Dr. Paul Davies. Joining in the festive dinner celebration following the christening were the baby's uncles, Carl Jr. and Robert Teutsch of Arlington Heights, and her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Gomez. Also on hand were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olson and their daughter, Alice, of Arlington Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Runge of Arlington Hts., and Miss Norma Hapke of Palatine.

The long anticipated visit of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hill from Puerto Rico was climaxed by their acting as godparents at the christening of tiny Mary Katherine Hill last Sunday. The christening ceremony was held at Our Lady of the Wayside church in Arlington Hts. by Father O'Hara, pastor of the church. Mary Katherine is the young daughter of Ed and Elizabeth Hill of 2204 Campbell st. A special christening party was held following the church services. On hand for the festivities were the baby's older sisters, Beth Ann, 2, and Marguerite, 1 year, as well as her grandparents, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Averry Wolfrum. Also present were Averry Wolfrum Jr., of Palatine, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murray of Wilmette, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Collins of Norwood Park.

Pot Luck Supper

More than 100 people turned out for the successful pot luck supper held last Sunday evening in honor of the 2 vicars who have done so much to assist the Lutheran church here in Rolling Meadows. The dinner was held in honor of Varnes Stringer, vicar of the Immanuel Lutheran church in Palatine, and William Bartels, vicar of St. Peters church in Arlington Hts. Mr. Stringer is now returning to his studies in Concordia seminary in Springfield, while Mr. Bartels has agreed to accept another year of vicarage in the vicinity of Buffalo, N. Y., where he will be doing institutional work in hospitals, old people's homes, orphan's homes, etc. The best wishes of the entire local congregation will follow these 2 earnest young men in their pursuit of church work. In an effort to give them a small token of their regard, a special collection among the local congregation was taken. Each young man was presented with a wallet containing $50 at the dinner as a result of this collection. Several prizes were awarded at the dinner, which proved again what able cooks these Rolling Meadows women can be.

Lutheran Ladies Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Lutheran Ladies group will be held this coming Tuesday at the home of Lorraine Zographos of 2402 Fremont st. All women interested in the Lutheran church in Rolling Meadows are invited to attend. The meeting will start at 8 p.m. Acting as co-hostesses for the evening will be Shirley Fogarty.

Building Progress

Land has been offered to the church by Kimball Hill & Associates at a nominal fee. Plans are being made to acquire 4 acres in the heart of section II of the Hill development in the vicinity of Meadow drive. The acquisition of this property must of course, have the approval of the Mission board, but it is felt this is a long step forward in the building of the first church building for the Lutheran church here.

Open-Air Church

Due to the necessity of preparing all classrooms for school classes which will be opening very soon, the Lutheran church no longer will enjoy the facilities of the classroom they have used all this past year. Services next Sunday will be held in the Kimball Hill school open breezeway which is under roof. During this period of hot weather this should prove to be comfortable as well as inspiring for all those in attendance.

Hospitalized Again

August 3 saw the return of young David Louis Holthe to Children's Memorial hospital in Chicago. The 3½ month old boy is the son of Fred and Sara Holthe of 2309 Wilke rd. His return to the hospital was due to a need for oxygen. The little boy is suffering from a serious heart condition, and doctors do not believe an operation is possible at this time.

Ball Game Credits

Space again does not permit the listing of all the credits necessary on the front page. The outstanding "Petticoat Classic" played by the Little League Mothers last Sunday really deserves outstanding mention of every participant, but again so very many residents cooperated in making the game a success we only hope we won't neglect anyone.

Thanks again are due to Joel Meyer for his outstanding way of announcing the game, and to Bill Golden who miraculously managed to keep the score straight all the way (and we still don't know how he managed to do it!) Team members of the Hawks under the managership of Harry Smith were Lavinia Hinricks, Nancy Martin, Evelyn Melnik, Jean Broderick, Ann Locascio, Mary Bialo, Irene Nottke, Myrla Garrity, Fern Burmeister, Mary Considine, Lillian Carlson, June Wilkans, Lee Haase, Jane Kedzie, Jeannette Douglas, Nora Walker and Dorothea Griesman.

Manager Al Haase led these team members on the Eagles — Grace Martin, Delores McDonald, Sue Kunz, Florence Smith, Mary Rybak, Doris Tatar, Betty Beck, Eleanor Keller, Jean Jansen, Evelyn Peters, Lola Kolb, Marjorie Kivi, Jane Zeek, Stella Rajkowski, Mrs. Young and Elva Rumrey.

The success of the game which was played to raise funds for the Little League was also contingent upon the sale of refreshments and the use of the pony rides available. These women gallantly managed the "make-shift" refreshment stand and made sure of the success of the day. They were Mesdames Newberg, Truskowski, Gobeyn, Lapinski, McGovern, Macior, Mazanet, Nyblin, Mahoney, Howard, Sweeney, Kitterman, Douglas, Schultz, Reynolds and Enger.

Special mention should also be made of the generosity of Mr. McFaggin who supplied a truck for the use of the announcer both for the "Petticoat Classic" as well as the "Mom's Day Doubleheader" the previous Sunday.

Little League Closing

The game played Sunday before the Petticoat Classic between the Pony League Team and the graduating 12 year old members of the Little League was only the beginning of the week's ceremonies in honor of the closing of this year's Little League play.

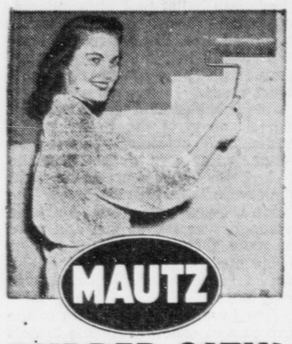

The exciting game Sunday was won by the Pony Leaguers by a score of 13 to 3. In an effort to create as even a game as possible the Pony League pitcher Mike Locascio pitched against his regular teammates while Little League 12-year graduates Wayne Wilkans, Bill McFaggin and Ron Hinricks pitched for the Pony Leaguers. The Pony League team was led to victory under the coaching of Bill Golden and Art Setzer, while the 12-year-olds were coached by Bill Hickey and Joe Wrenn.

Special celemonies were also held Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Little League field. Following the game Monday night between the Braves and White Sox the 12-year-old graduates of Little League play who will not be rejoining the league next year were called by name and received the applause of their fellow team members and the other on-lookers. This ceremony was repeated Tuesday evening following the closing game between the Cardinals and Cubs.

The largest crowd of the year turned out Sunday afternoon to see the moms of Rolling Meadows Little Leaguers give their all in an hilarious softball game for the benefit of the league. There was many an aching muscle the morning after, but the action Sunday was spirited and mirth-filled. "Stee-rike," says umpire "Knees" Schultz at left as the ball whizzes by batter "Stinky" Rybak. The catcher is Mary Bialo. Evelyn Melnick crosses the plate with a laugh at the right despite the last minute lunge of catcher Betty Beck. Sharing her glee is batter Ann LoCascio. The game ended in a 31-all tie. —Staff Photo

Vacationing

Aberdeen, S. Dak., was the recent vacation spot of Orville and Elva Rumrey of 2305 Wilke rd. Orville and Elva were accompanied on their vacation trip by their 3 children, Roger, 12, Orla, 7, and Lou Ann, 5 years. While in Aberdeen their 2 daughters observed their birthdays as a part of their vacation thrill. The family enjoyed their Aberdeen vacation at the home of Elva's brother and family, Glen and Rosalinn Pierson and their children, Patty, Lex and baby, Gordon, who was born July 18. Elva's mother, Mrs. Pierson, also makes her home there. Since the Pierson family home is on a farm, you can well imagine how exciting the 3 Rumrey children found their visit. While in Aberdeen the family also visited Orville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrison.

Buffalo, N. Y., was the vacation destination of Rosemary and Bob Theal of 2704 St. James st. The Theal family, including Kathy and Bobby, just returned last Saturday from a 2-week visit during which they saw many friends and relatives.

A trip around Lake Michigan proved to be a really exciting and worth-while vacation interlude for Art and Shirley Valentine of 2008 St. James st. The highlight of the trip was their visit to Mackinac Island, which was very impressive to Shirley. Since no automobiles are allowed on the island, the Valentine family decided to see the entire 9 mile shore line of the island by bicycle. Putting young Tommy, 3, in a special seat on his father's bike, and with young Mickey, 6, on a special 20-inch bike, the family set off. Rubbing her aches and pains later, Shirley declared the only thing wrong with the bike trip was that the wind was against them for half of it—otherwise she wouldn't have felt a thing!

In their brand-new Chevy Bel Air which they had acquired just the day before, Aubrey and Dorothy Amundson of 2400 Dove st., set off for their old home town of Sanborn, N. Dak. They were accompanied on their trip by their children, Gloria and Carolyn, of course, but they also had the pleasant company of Dorothy's sister, Edna Gilbertson of Williams Field, Chandler, Ariz. The family spent their North Dakota visit with Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Bertha Gilbertson in Sanborn and with Aubrey's mother, Mrs. Edna Kjelland in Fargo.

Whether you think it's cool here or not, you can be sure Marge and Kurt Zentner of 2902 Lark court find it cool and comfortable in their Rolling Meadows home. The Zentners just returned from a Nebraska vacation that was impressive at least weather-wise. The thermometer didn't drop below 102 degrees the entire trip and even hit 107 degrees one day.

It was Armour, S. Dak., for the recent vacation trip of Mrs. Helen Siewenie of 2411 Jay lane. Helen took her 2 daughters, Judy, 7, and Pam, 4, with her on the trip which saw them visiting old friends. While his wife and daughters enjoyed their vacation interlude, father claims he spent the entire time "batching" and doing an endless amount of dishes!

An exciting trip on the "Texas Chief" was the beginning of the month's vacation spent by Evelyn Mahoney and her 3 children, Kevin, 8, Mary 4, and little Maureen, 2. The family visited Ada, Okla., where they stayed with their grandmother, Mrs. Ada Reed Hemler, for whom the city was named, incidentally. Daddy George Mahoney also spent a week of his vacation down in Ada with his family. While in the Oklahoma city the children had an opportunity to see a real rodeo which listed 3 world champions on the bill.

Softball League

All League members are reminded that the softball league picnic has been set for Sunday, September 11. Be sure to set that date for your family's enjoyment. Recent games played by the league include triumph of Sigwalt Street over South by a score of 12 to 7. Another close contest last Sunday saw Bluebird lane just barely beating Sigwalt st. by the score of 11 to 10.

Even though he was out of town on business, Lennie Golz of 2206 Sigwalt st. didn't forget his tenth wedding anniversary August 10. His wife, Dorothy, was happily reminded of the happy event with the arrival of 10 lovely roses in honor of the occasion.

It was a Saturday night open-air barbecue which brought Shirley and Paul Lehmann of 2902 South court to Virginia Terrace. Accompanied by their children, Paul and Susan, the Lehmanns visited their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sikorske of 1231 Race st., for the outdoor meal last Saturday evening.

Residents are reminded to start saving their pennies for the oncoming girl scout finance drive which will be held in October. Heading the finance drive, which will be conducted by the Rolling Meadows Neighborhood association on its own this year, will be Bi White and Helene Bristol. It is hoped the drive will prove to be as successful this year as last when the local goal was easily reached.

Jaycee Organization

Are you a young man between the ages of 21 and 35? Are you interested in the improvement and development of your community? Are you interested in your own improvement and training for business advancement and civic leadership? Then you should be interested in the formation of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce. An organizational meeting of the Jaycees group will be held at the community barn at 8:30 p.m., August 25. All men in the community who can answer yes to the foregoing questions should be on hand. If you would like further information you may call Hal Conley of 2307 Robin lane at Clearbrook 5-2682.

All Rolling Meadows residents have received an invitation from the Ushers club of Our Lady of the Wayside parish to attend their late-summer Cabaret Dance. The dance called "A Night Under the Stars" will be held August 27, at 8 p.m. on the parish grounds. There will be dancing to the orchestral music of the Melodeers. The groups also promise all kinds of games and refreshments to your taste. The tickets are only $1 per person. All proceeds will go toward the Convent Chapel. Tickets can be obtained right here in Rolling Meadows by contacting one of the following memebrs of the Ushers club: Bill Tully, 2412 Fremont st. (chairman), Richard Drolet, 2403 Sigwalt st.; William Hickey, 2411 George st; Robert Gelderman, 2310 Bluebird lane; Herb Saunders, 2704 Oriole lane; Robert Kreutz, 2107 George st.; and Bill VanWazer, 2207 George st.

Gretchen White of 2507 Sigwalt st. has become a mother—but in a very un-motherly way she is planning to get rid of her latest child. The poor little orphan is a little calico-face kitten who has just been born to the White's pet cat. The little female is available to any loving family, providing there are no children under 7 years of age. How about it? Do you need a clean and loving family pet? Cats don't even need a license from the city (yet!).

Another kitten—only 3 months old—is looking for a home. Irene and Wes Sharples are being transferred back to their former home town of Newark, N. J., and the family pet just can't accompany them on that long plane trip. The little gray and white kitten is completely housebroken and very used to children—the Sharples have 3, you know. A call to Irene at Clearbrook 3-8368 will bring you any further information you may need. A new home must be found this week—and we just can't let the poor thing become an orphan!

Baby Shower

Phyllis Pelton of 2804 Campbell st. thought she was simply entertaining a group of her club friends at her home for a regular club meeting. It turned out to be a surprise baby shower for Phyllis her self, however. Joining in the fun were Marian Bauer and Joan Meyer of Norwood Park, Norma Karras of Summit, Lois Ristow of Arlington Heights, Marion Bank and Phyllis Grey of Des Plaines, Pat Pelton of Morton Grove, Betty Banks of Mt. Prospect, Sue Mc Govney of Chicago, and Jean Neitzke of Skokie.

If you are interested in playing Canasta this fall there is someone looking for you! Several additions to their club are needed. If you would like to enjoy the fun-filled meetings of their twice-monthly club meetings you are invited to call Dolores Szwiec at Clearbrook 5-0737. She will gladly give you any further information you may desire.

It was his second birthday which brought the recent celebration to the home of Donald Holthe. Donald is the young son of Sara and Fred Holthe of 2309 Wilke rd. On hand for the festivities were Walter Janus and his twin daughters, Linda and Laura, of Des Plaines, Shirley Johnson and her daughter, Jan, Marge Mazur and her children, Crain and twins, Karen and Keith, Marilyn Pallas and her daughter, Marcia Lynn. The birthday party was also joined by Donald's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schultz of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lyons and their son, Larry from Worth, Ill. The exciting presents received by Donald were climaxed by the largest portable swimming pool yet seen on Wilke rd., not to mention a beautiful tricycle.

It was that important first birthday which created a 3-day celebration at the home of Ed and Shirley Kruser of 2705 School drive. The guest of honor at the triple-celebration was their little daughter, Sherry, who was one August 4. Joining enthusiastically in the parties was Sherry's older sister, Lorry, 3.

August 8 was the date for the 9th birthday party of Jean Kerwin of 2202 Flicker Lane. Jean is the young daughter of Florence and Ray Kerwin. The festive occasion was marked by a party for a group of Jean's neighborhood friends. Joining in the games were Linda Spirek, Gail Nichols, Sheila Brown, Joan Holek, Patty Stier and Rosemary Coliendo.

It was a big day August 11 for little Vicki Maruda because on that day she was 4 years old. In honor of the important occasion her parents Stafford and Ethel Maruda of 2300 Eastman st. held a birthday party for her young neighborhood playmates. Joining in the festivities were Norrie and Charmaine Bristow, her brother, Billy Maruda, William and Clair Wagner of Chicago, Eddie and Margy Gilreath, and Susan and Ricky Faber.

In spite of the fact that Little League official play ended the first of this week, there will be another Minor League practice session this Saturday morning at 10 a.m. as usual at the Little League Field at Kirchhoff rd. and Meadow dr.

Golden Wedding Fete Highlights Vacation

The recent vacation enjoyed by Ed and Emma Preston of 2404 Sigwalt st., Rolling Meadows, was truly one they will remember for the remainder of their lives. The climax of the Preston's vacation trip to Ashley, N. Dak., was the golden wedding celebration of Mrs. Preston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Maier.

Although the 50th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Maier's wedding in the Evangelical Lutheran church in Friedensthal, South Russia, will not actually fall until November 16, the celebration was set for July 6 in order to enable the Maier's 10 children and their families, who live in all sections of the country, to attend.

Mrs. Preston's family has never known a death, and all 10 children and 27 grandchildren were on hand for the important celebration. The golden wedding observance started with a reception held in the parlors of the Evangelical United Brethren church in Ashley attended by almost all residents of the town. Folowing the reception a dinner was held for the immediate family at the church.

A special program was then held in the church with Rev. A. H. Ermel of Bismarck and Rev. Sprumk of Ashley participating.

The final highlight of the impressive program was the baptism of Mr. and Mrs. Preston's youngest daughter, Eladie Ann, 18 months old. Witnesses for the baptism were Mrs. Preston's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Maier of Port Orchard, Wash. At the close of the program another reception was held. More than 180 friends, in addition to the 56 members of the immediate family, attended the various programs held during the day.

A "memory trip" was taken by the entire family on the following day. Mrs. Preston's brother, Cotthilf Maier, operates a bus line and provided one of the Maier Coach Lines buses for the trip. The family toured the familiar and new sights of their old home town of Eureka, their old EUB church, the lake and other spots well remembered. They also visited the old farm site where the family had lived for 22 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston, with their daughters, Evelyn (Cookie) and Eladie Ann, have lived in Rolling Meadows for 1½ years. They are members of the Evangelical Free church in Arlington Heights where Mr. Preston is secretary of the Brotherhood. Mrs. Preston is the assistant chairman of the White Cross circle and the Women's Missionary society representative for Rolling Meadows.

Parties

August 16 was the date of a party for the younger set on Hickory. That was the day Karin Johnson, daughter of Alice and Wally Johnson, celebrated her second birthday and invited all her little friends over to help her eat her novel birthday cake. Karin's mother made the cake to resemble a farm and had little animals meandering through the frosting. Spending the afternoon with Karin were her brother and sister, Curt and Christine, and also Joyce Gran, Laura and Jeffrey Reed, Debbie Coughlan, Kathleen and Jimmy Josetti, Bonnie and Heather Gerrard, Richard and Susan Johnson and Rusty and Laurie Cardella.

Another birthday party on Hickory was for Joan Gran, daughter of Bertha and Warren Gran, who was 9 years old July 31. Joan's was a late afternoon party with her guests staying for dinner and eating in the back yard. Joan's mother planned the ideal dinner menu as far as the youngsters were concerned — hamburgers, and more hamburgers! Those who feasted were Susan Baugous, Barbara Evans, Laura Reed, Bernadette Gerlack, Sally Bell, Sandra Larson, Gwen and Mary Mundell and Valerie Peterson of Chicago.

Maureen Cooney, daughter of Jean and Maurice Cooney celebrated her sixth birthday August 10 when she invited 20 friends from the Greens to a luncheon party in her back yard. Sunday she celebrated again, this time with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cooney and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carroll, and also with other relatives.

Something new in parties occurred Monday when 4-year-old Karen Bylski, daughter of Terry and Ray Bylski entertained friends at a "pre-school" party. In just a couple of weeks many of her playmates will be trotting off to school so this party was probably their last big get-together before classes start. Those invited to the party were Barbara, Marilyn, and Nancy Epsky, Curtis Baer, Jean Nichols, Henry Korff and David Baker.

Here is a clever and unusual idea for a birthday party — Sandy Johnson, daughter of Maryn and Tom Johnson, had a pancake breakfast on her ninth birthday, August 10. Her friends were served pancakes and bacon when they arrived at 9 a.m. However, these were not just ordinary pancakes but pancake men! Maryn made a large pancake for the body, a smaller one for the head, and stretched the batter to make the arms and legs. Needless to say they made a big hit. Sandy's mother also made barbecue aprons for each of the guests to wear during the party. Each girl's name was painted on her apron. The guests who attended this novel party were Christine Forpe, Ann Kalkhoff, Susan Baugous, Kathy Loos, Kathy Keller, Jan Carlson and Nancy Keith.

This 'n That

Lorraine and Stan Saflarski are kind of lonesome this week and will be for the next couple of weeks, reason being that Lorraine's mother, Mrs. Mae Baske, who lives with them, left town Sunday for a 3 week vacation in New Orleans.

Terry and John Lynch entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holz of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Girard of Arlington Heights, and Kay and Jack Summer of the Greens at an outdoor steak broil on Saturday night.

Bertha and Warren Gran had out-of-town company recently when Bertha's father, Henry Tyler of Florida, spent 2 weeks visiting with them.

Special Delivery

August 8 saw a new arrival in the person of Janet Lee Olson who made her first appearance at St. Francis hospital weighing 7 pounds 14 ounces. Janet's happy parents are Anne and George Olson of 508 Oakton. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Olson, live at the same address so Janet is one little girl who will have lots of attention. She also has a "big brother" 15-month-old Allan.

Feehanville School

School board is happy to announce they have signed up 4 capable and efficient teachers for the coming year at Feehanville. James Alstrin, principal, will also teach the seventh and eighth grade room. Miss Laveta Hobson of Des Plaines will teach the fifth and sixth grade room. Mrs. Hazel Cavett of Des Plaines will teach the third and fourth grade room, and Miss Jo Ann Dalton will teach the first and second grade room.

Frank Schuler, the new custodian, is already hard at work, getting the school ready for the first week in September.

Forest River Church

Saturday is the day — 2 o'clock is the time — Lake Avenue East is the place — and the Sunday school picnic is the reason for all the excitement among the youngsters in the area. Hilarious games have been planned for fun, an interesting speaker will give a little talk, supper will be pot luck, and the married men and the single men will again compete on the ball diamond.

At a meeting last Sunday afternoon at the church, the leaders of various groups set up a tentative schedule for fall activities. The boys brigade will meet at 7 o'clock on Monday nights. The pioneer girls, colonist group, will meet 7:30 Monday night. The pilgrim group will be meeting at 6:30 on Tuesday. Wednesday night the advanced group of teachers' training will meet at 7 o'clock with prayer meeting immediately afterwards at 8 o'clock. The stockade will meet at 7 o'clock on Friday night.

Last Tuesday Bernard Shimmin, stockade leader, held a meeting with his 2 asistant leaders, John Hanson and Robert Martens, to make plans for the fall program of the stockade.

TFC's were fortunate in having Mrs. Jack MacDonald as a special speaker at their meeting last Sunday evening. The Rev. Jack MacDonald brought the message at the evening worship, and his father led the singing and sang 2 solos.

Community News

Straw hats and blue jeans were the order of the day last Saturday night when 19 teenagers and their chaperone, Roman Anderson, met at the community hall to drive out to North Shore ranch for their hayride. Harmonicas and ukeleles were brought along and were a pleasing accompaniment to the singing. After the hayride ended at 10 o'clock the young people returned to the Community hall where they roasted wieners for refreshments and danced. Mrs. Arkel and Mr. Anderson were the chaperones.

Joby Badalamenti's fifteenth birthday was the occasion for a party given in her honor at the home of the Leavys on Hill st. last Sunday. She received many lovely gifts, and the young people all had a wonderfu time singing, dancing an dplaying records. Included among those able to attend were Jackie Alexander, Michael Leavy, Mary Leavy, Chuck Novy, George Tuisis, Lonso Fuster, Don Huening, George Grenda, Judy Beto.

Birthday club had their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Bernice Masters in Wheeling. Mrs. Masters was very happy with the many beautiful gifts she received. The ladies all enjoyed the games played after the gift packages were opened. The prize winner of the evening was Mrs. Charles Badalamenti. All the members of the club were present except Mrs. Virginia Seilheimer and Mrs. Marion Miller, both of whom were vacationing in Wisconsin.

Friends and neighbors are extending their deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. John Nowicki of Marcela ave. on the death of Mr. Nowicki's father, John Nowicki Sr. of Chicago. He passed away August 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Steiner and children, Billy and Mary, and Mrs. Goggin, and her 2 sons, Johny and Tommy, will be coming home August 21 after a 2-week vacation in Virginia.

The Earl Kellys will be breaking ground for their new home on Marcella and Central this week. They have 2 sons, Dale and Tommy. Mrs. Kelly is Mrs. Elaine Castre's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Meidell and son Robert of Mt. Prospect and Oscar Hendriksen and sons Daniel and John of Antioch were Saturday night guests at the Arthur Hansons.

Mr. and Mrs. Red Bischof and their youngsters, Larry, Barry, Terry and Linda, are home from a month's vacation in the west. While we were sweltering in the heat they were wearing jackets and roughing it high up in the mountains. They visited Mt. Rushmore, Yosemite and Yellowstone National park, Disneyland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. After a quick trip home last week they left again for Milwaukee to visit the parents of Mrs. Bischof.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Richards of Evanston, parents of Mrs. Henry Schmitz on Anita st., have been spending 2 weeks of their vacation with the Schmitzes. They did some fishing on their vacation and visited relatives.

Mrs. Stanley Warren and her 4 sons are back from a month's vacation in Dowagiac, Mich., where they stayed with her mother, Mrs. Ludwig, former resident of Forest River. She brought her brother, Gerald George Ludwig, up here with her. He had been spending a month here with the Warrens.

Birthday greetings this week go to Candice Hildebrandt, who was 2 years old on the thirteenth, Josephine Badalamenti, who was 15 on the fifteenth; Lawrence Huening, who was 12 on the fifteenth; Georgia Lee Campbell, who was 1 on the sixteenth, and Carmen Rios who is 3 on the nineteenth.

Debate Amount Of Oil Imports

Last week Arthur J. Flemming, head of the office of defense mobilization, rattled the lid on a box of troubles the administration hoped it had shuit last February. He asked 30 U.S. oil companies to report on the amount of oil they had imported in July, and how much more they expected to import in the next eleven months.

This concern about imports would be surprising, in an administration so bent on increasing foreign trade, except for the peculiar nature of the oil business.

Obviously it would be extremely foolhardy to shut off all imports and drain U.S. oil reserves to the last barrel. It would be equally foolish, officialdom agrees, to let in so much imported oil that the U.S. extraction industry would dwindle past the point where it could quickly expand in an emergency. Here the whole dispute is where to put the danger point; importers shove the index one way, domestic drillers the other.

Good Pinch-Hitters

There's always something new happening in baseball. On July 23, Bob Cerf was called up as a pinch-hitter by the Yankees in a game against Kansas City. Cerf hit a home run. Then the Yankees called another pinch-hitter, Elston Howard, and Howard also slammed one out of the park. Never before in American League history, says The Sporting News, have pinch-hitters hit consecutive homers.

State Toy Purchases Reach $29 Per Child

Children who live in Illinois can consider themselves fortunate as far as toys are concerned. Their doting parents are buying the kiddies toys at a rate considerably above the national average.

Industry sources report that on a countrywide basis parents last year spent an average of $19.20 on toys for each child under 15.

But the parents of the 2,494,400 boys and girls under 15 in Illinois spent an average of $29.20 on toys for each of the youngsters—$10 above the national average.

Toy sources also state that parents today are spending more on toys than parents 15 years ago. Fifteen years ago, the toy outlay nationally averaged $11.93 for each child.

Safety Record

Forty-three U.S. non-certificated independent airlines flew approximately 1,300,000,000 passenger miles in 1954 without a passenger or crew fatality in domestic and international operations of these carriers, according to Aircoach Transport Association.

FOR THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION

We are one of those young married couples who would be so happy if we only had $3000 for a down payment on a home. Would a 20-year Endowment Policy on our baby be a wise way to provide this start when he is grown?

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

How understanding of divine Mind's government of man brings health and harmony into daily experience will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday, August 21.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" includes the account from the King James Version of the Bible of Christ Jesus' healing of the man afflicted by leprosy (Luke 5).

Among the correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (180:25,27): "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible."

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (2:16): "Who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him?"

The Easier Way

It is so much easier to have confidence in a friend than in a stranger. You just naturally build your confidence on someone you know. That's why families come in to meet us and go through our modern, comfortable funeral home — in advance of need. When the need arises, they will have confidence in us based on knowledge. Won't you drop in at your convenience? There 's no obligation.

NEED SOMETHING? SEE THE WANT ADS?

Basic problems of merchandising were learned when the girl scouts worked at their vegetable stand, part of the 4-H work of Intermediate girl scout troop 8, Arlington Heights. The girls helped customers select produce, weighed vegetables, and collected money.

Money earned from the project will be put in a fund that leaders hope will be enough in 5 years for a trip to Alaska, providing girl scout council approves. Anniversary

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ted DePalma who celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary August 7.

Little Gale Wagner of Martha st. had her paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Francis Wirshing of Chicago, spend a few days with her last week.

The Moder children, Eddie, Tim, and Margie, celebrated the change in weather with a visit to Brookfield zoo last Monday.

Double Celebration

Ellen Ostrowski had a double celebration for her fifth birthday last week. Sunday her relatives gathered for a birthday supper. Nine adults, including grandmothers, aunts, uncles and godparents, plus 6 little cousins were present. Thursday, her actual birthdate, Ellen entertained Peggy Wuestenfeld, Suzy and Sandy DePalma, Margi Moder and Cheryl Kim in the breezeway which was gaily decorated with balloons and crepe paper for the occasion.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson who will celebrate their 33rd anniversary August 19.

Strange noises coming from the eaves over the bedroom of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Suarez led Jack to promise to investigate them upon his return from work the following day. That day, however, while he was pruning a tree for a friend he slipped and fell spraining his wrist and ankle. So neighbor Charles Kim pried open the offending eaves and discovered a young kitten wedged in there. It wasn't long before little Guy and Susie Horbus, hearing the news, came dashing over to claim their lost kitten. With the mystery solved all concerned slept more peacefully except Jack Suarez who is still forced to hobble around with a cane.

Hosts

Saturday, August 6, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kim of Lincoln lane were hosts at a reception given in honor of Mrs. Kim's mother, the former Mrs. Dolly Santschi, and her bridegroom Walter Johnson, who were married at 4 p.m. in the Cuyler ave. Methodist church, Oak Park. A buffet supper was served at 5:30 p.m. to 22 relatives and friends. For entertainment, the groom, formerly in vaudeville, and one of his associates performed for the guests. Pat Krause of Martha st. added to the evening's entertainment with an accordion solo. The guests danced until 10 p.m. Monday the bride and groom left for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Wagner entertained Mrs. Wagner's family at a picnic supper Sunday. 13 guests played croquet and tested their skill with the bow and arrows.

Happy Birthday

Happy birthday to Bob Horbus who will be 17 August 20 and Susan Kappa who will celebrate her 12th birthday, August 21.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horbus, Bob, Susan, and Guy drove to Green Lake, Wisconsin, Monday for a vacation at the resort there. Swimming and fishing occupied their time until their return Friday. Mrs. Horbus was thrilled with her catch of a 12-inch bass, but George Horbus was satisfied with 2 10-inch bass. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Grothman, parents of Mrs. Horbus, occupied the Horbus home during the absence of the family.

20 members of the Elk Grove Manor property owners association assembled August 7 at the home of the president, Ed Moder, for a discussion of current problems.

Picnic Hostess

Thursday afternoon Mrs. William Albiniak was hostess at a picnic lunch in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Fred Growcock, of Monterrey, Mex. Present were Mrs. Growcock and her 4 children, Mrs. Albinia's grandmother, Mrs. William Lumpp of Skokie, Mrs. Van Cleone, Mrs. Henry Guenthr, and Mrs. Ted Berg and their children, all of Skokie. Mr. and Mrs. Growcock are visiting relatives here and in Indiana during their vacation. They return to this country every 3 years. Mr. Growcock is a professor of languages at a university in Mexico and is sponsored by the Lutheran Synod.

William Lumpp, formerly of Biesterfield rd., and now living in Rolling Meadows, had the misfortune to have his foot broken when a 600 lb. weight fell on his foot while at his place of employment.

Northern Illinois Gas company's plans to commemorate Ottawa's centennial of gas service was highlighted Tuesday evening, August 16, when Marvin Chandler, president (right), turned on a replica of first gas street light in front of utility's Ottawa store. He was assisted by R. C. Woodward, mayor of Ottawa.

In photo they're shown polishing street light prior to its installation on LaSalle street. Lighting of the lamp, which will be kept burning continuously for two weeks, was preceded by impressive street display of gas company's operating equipment and a centennial dinner. Other centennial program features this week in Ottawa included a free cooking school Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and an open house in the gas utility's store. A free street dance also is on the schedule for Thursday evening, August 18, from 9:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m.

Happy birthday to Edward Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Becker, 105 Meadow Lane, who celebrated his fourth birthday with a yard party Saturday afternoon for 15 friends. His grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Becker from Chicago, came in to help him celebrate.

The Beckers have also just returned from a week's vacation to Devils lake in Baraboo, Wis., where they enjoyed hiking on the trails and the boat rides. Leaving Devils lake they went to St. Joseph, Mich., to visit their relatives. Mr. and Mrs. John Zitta. While there the Beckers, Edward and Sharon Lee, visited the House of David.

House guests at the Joe Warfsman home, 312 Golf Lane, are Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Schmits, Mrs. Warfsman's parents, from Kansas City. On the entertainment schedule was a game between the White Sox and the Athletics Tuesday night. The Schmits will leave this weekend to visit in Quincy before they return home.

On the vacation list last week were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Merritt, 307 Golf Lane, and their children, Susan, 8, and Tommy, 12. They traveled to the Chicago club, Lake Delavan, accompanied by Tom Merritt's mother, Mrs. Charles Merritt.

High points of the trip were when Susan learned to swim and Tommy perfected his diving.

At Camp

Susan and Janet Balducci spent 2 weeks at the girl scout camp, Hickory Hill, at Edgerton, Wis. While the girls were camping, their grandmother was houseguest of their parents.

The picnic proved a success even thought it had the 4-H fair to compete with plus a virus infection which kept several of the children at home. The day was perfect and thanks to the committee, Mrs. Vehrs, Mrs. Goodpasture and Mrs. Lisching, those that could come had fun. (AP

List Foursomes For Paddock Golf Tournament Sunday

THURSDAY, AUG. 18, 1955

THE HIGHEST PAR FIGURE, the widest fairways, and unusually fine greens are features of Roselle Golf club, located in a real country setting in rural Schaumburg township. It is claimed that the golf club is the highest point in Cook county. It is a rolling layout with its par 73 covering 6,475 yards of wide well turfed fairways.

We played the course Friday morning and found it showing less effect from hot weather than most of the courses in the area.

There was no sign of brown spots on the greens which are large, rolling, and in fine putting shape. My son, who beat me for the first time, thought the course was the best daily fee layout he had played.

TOUGHEST HOLES ON THE COURSE, in our opinion, are 5 and 16. Five is a dog leg to the left around a large pond and over two hills, with side hill lies likely unless the tee shot is well down the middle. The green is elevated with bunkers 100 yards out in front. Putting surface is smaller than average, and slopes to center and front. The hole is a par 5, 520 yards in length.

The 16th is the toughest. It is a 560 par 5 with a dog leg to the left which bends at about 325 yards with bunkers spaced along the left for players who try to make the short cut. The green is very wide and rolling and on a high hump difficult to approach except from the front.

NUMBER NINE IS A SPORTY HOLE, though only 260 yards par 4. The drive is on an angle across the corner of a large pond and the fairway rises on a sharp slope from the pond to the highly elevated green which is very large with a ridge across the center.

Number 10 is of the same type with the fairway sloping off toward the pond on the right and the green located around the end of the pond and very close to it. This is a par 4 380 yard hole with an approach across the corner of the pond unless the left side of the fairway is played.

LIKE MANY OF THE BETTER daily fee clubs of the area, Roselle started as a private club back in 1927. In 1940 it became a daily fee course and the present operators, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hogan, took over in 1949. The Hogans have a beautiful new ranch type home on a 160 acre farm off Bode road from where Tom commutes daily to a business office in Chicago. Mrs. Hogan is the efficient general manager of the golf club and Tom the president.

Play at Roselle is about 75% from Chicago and, unlike most of the nearby courses, is spread quite evenly through the day and through the week. Roselle has three nines, one being constructed especially for ladies and high handicap players with a par of 34. The club has a fine practice putting green, lockers for 200 men and 50 women, a spacious dining room which can handle 200, and bars upstairs and downstairs.

ROSELLE HAS TWO twilight leagues. The Roselle league plays Monday and the Tupane from O'Hare Field Tuesday. Rates at Roselle are very reasonable. On weekdays the rate is $1.50 for all day and a late afternoon special of $1.00 after 3:00 p. m. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays rates are $3.00 with $2.00 after 3:00 and $1.50 after 5:00 p. m.

Rendezvous team, representing a good restaurant on Highway 20, is the leading team in the Roselle league which will try to win the Paddock tournament at Arlington golf club this Sunday.

Roselle Golf club is about a half mile south of Higgins rd. (72) on Roselle rd., a location easy to reach without excessive traffic and with facilities both as to course and club house to satisfy the most critical golfer.

Physicals Necessary Before August 29, Incoming Frosh Included

All boys who expect to participate in AHHS athletics for the coming school year are reminded that physical examinations should be taken sometime before August 29. Appointments can be made by calling Dr. George F. Smith (CL 3-4342). This applies to all sports and not just football and cross country, and it also applies to all incoming freshmen.

Wally Grace, athletic director, urges the athletes to get their physicals as soon as possible and not wait until the last minute.

Coaching Clinic

Two of the top Big 10 coaches will be featured at the seventh annual football and basketball coaching clinic August 18-19 sponsored by the Southern Illinois university athletic department.

Branch McCracken, head basketball coach at the University of Indiana, and "Stu" Holcomb, Purdue university's head football coach for the past eight seasons, will lead five discussion periods each during the two-day clinic.

Palatine High Grid Practice Opens Aug. 29

Football practice will open at Palatine high for all squads at 8:30 a.m. on Monday August 29. All boys are expected to have had physical exams and have paid their $5 for half the football insurance before being issued any equipment. Exams are being given this week afternoons and evenings at Dr. Carl Starck's ofice for varsity candidates (juniors and seniors). Those who cannot arrange for this week may appear at the school for physicals along with the freshmen and sophomores next week.

The exam schedule next week at the new gym will be Tuesday: 9:15-12:00 freshmen with last initial A to M. inclusive; Tuesday: 1:15-3:30 freshmen with last name of N to Z. On Wednesday the same schedule will be held for sophomores. Thursday morning freshmen who could not appear Tuesday will have a chance for physicals along with juniors and senior left overs. Thursday afternoon sophomores and upper class hold overs will appear. Friday morning physicals will be given to varsity cheerleaders and frosh-soph cheerleader candidates and in the afternoon to any remaining boys by appointment only. Cross Country squad candidates are also to be included in the above schedule along with football players.

THIS YEAR Charley Feutz will again be head varsity football coach with "Gene" Moylan his assistant in charge of the line. Claude Bailey assisted by John Ellis will handle the sophomore squad. Art Zimmer assisted by Dean Harshbarger will coach freshman football.

Palatine football prospects are very good for strong teams at all levels, particularly the varsity. Palatine opens with a non-league double header at home with Barrington on Friday September 16 and opens the Northwest season at Glenbrook the following Friday night. Glenbrook was undefeated champ last year with Palatine suffering their only loss to the Spartans, 7-0.

Cubs Tip Braves In NW Division

by BETTY KIRCHOFF

Sunday afternoon the Cubs took over the driver's seat in the Northwest Pony League race by setting down the slipping Braves, 5-3. The Braves, with this loss, slide to third while the idle Prospect Heights Indians remain in the runner-up slot.

Dave Soenksen pitched another splendid game for the Cubs, allowing the losers only 6 hits, walking 4, and fanning 12. Allan Kruse was the only Brave batter Dave really had trouble with. Al connected for 2 doubles and a triple in 4 times at bat.

Oddly enough the victors tallied all 5 of their runs in the first 3 innings. Erber scored the ice-breaker in the first on an error. Then in the second Jim Blake drove in 2 more with a single to give the Cubs a 3-0 lead. Jobst, the losing twirler, made them a gift of the last 2 runs by walking Herdt and Blake with the bags loaded.

Wednesday the Mt. Prospect — Wheeling Pony League All-Stars were to have played in the Highwood tournament at Highwood.

Amvets End Season ith 15-D Triumph

The Wheeling Amvet Little League team ended its league schedule Wednesday night, August 10, with a resounding 15-0 victory over the Prospect Heights White Sox. This gave the Amvet nine a 12-8 record for the year. Dick Lass pitched for the Amvets and what a job he turned in! He pitched a no-hit, no-run game. The team played errorless ball behind Dick and turned in 2 double plays.

Playoff Action Next Week In Palatine Little League

The right for one team to play in the Palatine Little League playoffs rests on the outcome of the important clash tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. between the Sox, co-champs first half and undisputed title-holders for the second half, and the Indians, co-leaders in the exciting first half American League race.

With the playoffs set for Monday and Tuesday, August 22 and 23, excitement is mounting in Palatine. The schedule for the week of top baseball is as follows: Monday, August 22, at 6:30 the 4th place National League squad will encounter the 4th place American League team; at 8:00 p.m. the 2 third place teams will meet. Then on Tuesday, August 23, the 2nd place teams in their respective leagues will battle at 6:30 with the Palatine championship at 8 p.m. between the 2 league pace-setters.

THE FIRST GAME Thursday night saw the Indians swamp the Yanks, 11-2. The Indians went to work in the first frame and scored 6 runs. Van Hoosier led off with a single, Clark walked, Ball singled, Nelson reached base on an error, Hildebrand singled, Quayle walked, and Conroy, recently brought up from the Minors, banged out a lusty triple. The next 3 men were checked by the Yanks' pitching to retire the side.

Nelson and Conroy each had 3 hits for the Indians, Conroy garnering a single, double and triple. Nelson pitched the entire game and gave up only 4 hits, 2 each by Schur and G. Smith.

Indians	600 041—11-11
Yanks	001 001— 2- 4

Batteries: Indians — Nelson and Conroy; Yanks—Schur and Cutler.

IN THE SECOND game the league leading Sox continued their winning ways by dropping the Tigers, 5-1. The Sox scored 3 in the first on 2 walks, 2 errors, and a single by McAfee. Slapping out hits for the losers were McWilliams, Bassett, and Foster in the first frame, but they came up with only 1 run. The Sox scored additional runs in the third and fourth.

Rose hurled all the way for the Sox allowing 4 hits. McAfee had 2 safeties for the Sox, Wolf and Michaels 1 apiece. Bassett was the leading stickman for the Tigers with 2 blows, Foster and McWilliams had 1 each.

Sox	301 10—5-4
Tigers	100 00—1-4

Batteries: Sox—Rose and Michaels; Tigers—Bassett, McIntosh and Smith.

MONDAY NIGHT'S first game saw the Indians whip the Sox, 11-3, in the first game as the 2 leaders met in a showdown battle. The Indians jumped off to 1 in the first, added 4 in the second, 4 more in the fourth, and 2 in the fifth on 14 hits.

Conroy once again was the star for the Indians with 2 home runs and a triple. Ball also collected 3 hits. Van Hoosier, Clark, and Quayle had 2 apiece. Seehausen and Dolce each collected a single safety.

Seehausen pitched all the way for the Indians and allowed the Sox only 5 hits. Seidel hit 2, Rose, Michaels, and Jefferson 1 each.

SECOND GAME Monday night saw the Yanks slaughter the Tigers, 10-0, with Hicks hurling a beautiful game limiting the Tigers to 2 hits. Goldhammer, R. Hartman, and Smith had 2 hits each for the Yanks. Krass and Cichy had 1 each.

This contest ended the regular season play. On Thursday, August 18, the fans will be treated to an All-Star Minor League game at 6:30 and the aforementioned playoff between the Sox and Indians at 8.

In the first game, August 9, of the National division the Giants trounced the Braves, 8-4, and the Cards dropped a 5-2 decision to the Cubs.

The Giants-Braves affair saw some heavy hitting with Christensen and Schuh the big guns for the Giants, each collecting 3 hits in 4 trips to the plate. Christensen had 2 singles and a triple and Schuh had 2 doubles and a single. Funston hit a homer for the Braves, driving in 3 of their 4 runs.

Giants	004 220—8-10
Braves	000 040—4- 5

Batteries: Giants — Christensen, Helms, and Donahoe; Braves — Barr, Chessman, and Schiele.

THE CARDS and the Cubs battled through a nip-and-tuck game with the Cubs rallying to win. Schuettner with 2 for 2, including a double, was the Cards' big gun, Kehe and O'Reilly shared laurels for the Cubs, Kehe tallying 2 runs and O'Reilly slugging a homer.

Cards	020 00—2-3
Cubs	111 02—5-5

Batteries: Cards — Berry and Moss; Cubs—Kehe, O'Reilly, and Rogan.

August 12 saw some exciting baseball in Palatine circles. The Giants eked out a 4-3 win over the Cards. In a free scoring contest, the Cubs thumped the Braves, 13-9.

In a real thriller that featured outstanding pitching the Giants squeezed out a win. Knowles, Card pitcher, struck out 11 while Helms and Donahoe were striking out 11 Cards. Homers were a feature of the game, too. Knowles and the Giants' Koenen each collected 1 circuit clout. The game remained in doubt until the last out when a Card 2 run rally fell short.

Giants	000 013—4-3

THE BRAVES-CUBS outing was a wide open affair, the Cubs countering all 13 of their runs in the second frame. Shaky Brave pitching and fielding in this one inning pulled the top down. Thome, with a single and a triple in the same inning, drove in 4 of the runs for the Cubs. Funston scored 3 times for the Braves who kept battling all the way.

Braves	112 5— 9-8
Cubs	0(13)0 *— 9-8

Batteries: Braves — Chessman, O'Brien and Funston; Cubs —Kehe, O'Reilly, and Rogan and Miller.

The Giants and the Braves met August 13 to play off a tie game from the first half of the season. The Giants swamped the Braves, 12-0. Helms and Michels homered and Donahoe tripled to lead the Giants' offensive. Michels held the Braves to 1 hit, a first inning single by Funston.

The Giants, second half winners, and the Cubs, first half winners, met Tuesday, August 16, for the National league title.

First Tee-Off Scheduled For Noon At Arlington

Actual foursomes for Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament, scheduled for this Sunday, August 21, at Arlington country club, are listed this week. Golfers are grouped according to handicaps, with the tournament's best players slated to tee off promptly at 12 noon. Other foursomes will follow in order listed elsewhere on this page just as fast as the players are able.

OUTSTANDING golfers named in first foursome Sunday include 2 "zero" handicap men, Dan Musser and Len Arnold. Arnold will represent Webber Paint of Rob Roy league while Musser will spearhead State & Rand Servio of Old Orchard Scratch league.

Two other members of the opening foursome are 2 men almost equally potent Wayne Rolfs and Glen Roloff. Roloff is representing Rendezvous Cabin of Roselle league, Rolfs, a senior this fall at Arlington Heights high school, will carry colors of Murphy Insurance of St. James league.

THE TOURNAMENT is a team affair, which means golfers of decidedly lesser potency will compete, as well as their more gifted brethren. Last foursome will include men of 21-27 handicaps, who'll play just as hard as the first group, in spite of averaging around the century mark for 18 holes.

Official handicaps as computed by tournament managers of sports department are listed with each foursome. Figures are based on 80% of the difference between a golfers' 5 best nights and par for the course on which he plays.

Greens fees for all golfers have been paid by their respective leagues, so there'll be no pressure on individual men Sunday, other than the right to win first, second and third place medals, have their names inscribed on the large golden trophy, and possession of a brand new dozen golf balls for low individual net.

Land 25 Lb. Muskie

It took 30 minutes to land, but Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Conn of 420 N. Lincoln Lane, Arlington Heights can now boast of a 25 lb. 43 inch muskie caught at Eagle Lake, Vermillion Bay, Canada, August 2, during their stay at Andy Myers' camp. Mrs. Conn is pictured with the prize catch.

Oaks Capture Jr. League Title With 17-3 Win

The South Side Oaks unleashed a devastating 17 run attack, August 11, in crushing the North Side Sox, 17-3, for the junior division championship of the Arlington Hts. minor league.

Entering the contest with a 12-1 season slate, the Oaks, managed by Earl Hadland, tallied in each of the 4 frames, adding 7 counters in both the second and third. The strong Oaks combined 10 walks with 10 hits, including 4 doubles, to take the title.

Pete Vaughn, winning moundsman, allowed only 4 hits while striking out 10 of the Sox who compiled an impressive 10-1 mark for the '55 campaign. Vaughn with 2 doubles and a single, Hadland and Welton with doubles and Henning and Ball with 2 hits each supplied the attack which sunk Manager William Ashley's Sox. Last year the Oaks won all their league games only to drop the championship tilt, 7-4. Their 2-year record is 25 games won against only 2 defeats.

Carrying the pitching load for the losing Sox in the title affair was Terry Ashley, one of the top performers in north side minor league circles this summer. Ashley's battery-mate was Joe Heits.

5 Pool Records Established In Lions Olympics' Swim Meet

Five pool records were established, two by Joan Keppen who also claims one other mark, in the 5th annual Lions Olympics swimming championships at the Arlington Pool, August 10.

In the 16 separate events for both boys and girls ranging from 7-16, champions were crowned in both free style and backstroke events of 25 and 50 yards. Joan Keppen, rapidly becoming one of the most famous young swimmers in Arlington's history, snapped the year old 25 yard free style mark for girls 11-12 when she clipped off the distance in 14.2, 1 second better than the old mark set in '54 by Jane Schaefer. She also established a new standard in the 25 yard backstroke for girls 11-12 in 17.4 time, eclipsing the old 18.5 mark of Linda Close.

Jane Schaefer, Tom Ocasek, and Richie Leckband were other double winners. Jane broke Judy Koelling's 25 yard backstroke mark for girls 13-14 with a timing of 18.4. Lynn Buckley in the 25 yard backstroke for girls 7-8 and Greg Inman in the backstroke for boys 7-8 set the two other pool records.

The Lions Olympics swimming program was sponsored by the Lions Club of Arlington Heights under the direction of Ted Wissen, pool director.

Pitching Sparks Strong Showing Of Poole Fords

by BOB FRISK

Arlington's own "hitless wonders," the 1955 edition of the Merle Guild Post 208 junior legion team, continue along their merry way without one regular hiting .300 and with a team batting average of .232.

Currently tied up in the Cook County consolation round playoffs, the Fords' claim to fame this summer has been an effective pitching staff headed by southpaw Johnny Sujack and bolstered by the steady chucking of right handers Al Smeby and Denny Thill. Tuesday of this week (August 16) the Fords were slated to send Sujack against Van Buren of Chicago, a team they'd beaten twice, with the winner traveling to Argo, August 19-20, for the Cook County championship. Tonight (Thursday) the locals are scheduled to host Crane of Chicago at 6 p.m. at Recreation Park.

It's been a long season for Manager Dave Ryden and the local nine with the slate of games far exceeding any previous legion schedule. Added experience has paid off for Arlington with the young team developing into a strong front-running squad which knocked off the "second best" team in the state, 4-3.

WITH SUJACK on the mound and turning in his usual sharp performance, Ryden states that this summer's squad could beat any team in this area and probably in the entire state. And this will hold true regardless of the outcome of Tuesday's game with Van Buren. Statistics don't always tell the entire story, but in Sujack's case, they tell quite a bit. John has won 7 games, dropping 1. In 67 1-3 innings of work he has fanned 90, walked only 23 — remarkable control for a southpaw — allowed 35 hits and only 10 earned runs for a 1.04 earned run mark. And this excludes the All-Star game when he hurled 3 shutout innings against the top batters of the seventh district.

The victory which sent Heights into the tilt Tuesday for a right to play in the county playoffs was a thrilling, 10 inning, 1-0 victory over Franklin Park. An unearned run handed Sujack his seventh triumph.

John was the big factor in the uprising by leading off the tenth with a triple to right, holding third while Jerry Klement walked, then scampering home on a hard hit grounder by Thill which the loser's third sacker held momentarily to check the runner at third, then fired into the dirt at first for the game-deciding error.

ONLY 6 of the 35 batters Sujack faced hit the ball out of the infield with 10 going down on strikes. Neither team threatened until the sixth when Ed "Tiny" Meinken lashed a long triple to left. With 1 out, Pat Brownell lifted a fly ball to center, apparently scoring Meinken, but the umpire ruled Ed hadn't tagged up after the catch and the run was nullified.

Tentatively set for August 25, the annual American Legion banquet will again honor the local legion team, personnel and staff. Bruce Fullerton is taking care of the "red tape" and a more definite report will be given next week.

The averages this week include only 2 games since the last Redwing encounter — Franklin Park and Lombard. Jim Summers used a vacation to stay up on top of the regulars with a .286 mark while the remainder of the regulars skidded down to the 240's and lower.

Bulletin

Arlington's Junior Legion baseball team qualified for the finals of the Cook County consolation round playoffs with a 6-5 victory over Van Buren of Chicago. The locals will meet Blue Island Saturday at 4 p.m. at Argo, Ill., and will play Sunday regardless of the outcome. There are 4 teams in the tourney representing the 3rd, 4th, 7th and 9th districts.

John Sujack captured the victory for Arlington as the Poole Fords snapped out of a season long batting slump for 11 safeties.

Mt. Prospect Country Club Edges VFW In LL Play

by BILL GODMAN

Mt. Prospect Little League action resumed August 11 as the Country Club eked out a 3-2 decision over the VFW behind the 2-hit pitching of Ron Schafer. The fast-balling right hander (he also used quite a few slow ones) was never in serious troupble.

The only inning the VFW could score on Schafer was the second when a single by Chuck Rateike and a home run by Jeff Rogers netted the Vets 2 runs. In the last 3 frames he did not allow a runner to reach first base.

The Country club tallied all their runs in the first inning on a leadoff walk to Paul Koester, three straight singles, and an error. Pitching for the VFW was Mike Nash. After a shaky first inning, Mike settled down and allowed the Country club 2 singles in the last 5 innings. He struck out the side in the sixth and thus raised his total to 13 for the game. Scafer had 10 strikeouts.

Oak Brook Polo Club

Three goals in the final chukker of Sunday's match between Diamond B of Texas and CCC-California gave the Triple C aggregation a 9 to 7 victory in a razzle-dazzle polo tilt at Oak Brook on the famed International Field, York and 22nd, before 5,000 charity day fans.

Paced by Dr. Billy Linfoot, who smashed his way between the posts six times, twice in the final frame, the CCC-California group led until the fifth period when Diamond B surged ahead a goal on three points by Bert and Bobby Beveridge.

However the Texans were doomed as Harold Barry, Linfoot, Vic Graber and Capt. Don Beverdige played a tight defensive final frame along with rapid scoring.

Northwestern Gridders Need Many Replacements

Coach Roy Saban, Northwestern's new football coach, has invited 61 candidates to report for the opening of football practice, Sept. 1. The group includes 20 lettermen, seven holdover squadmen and 34 aspiring sophomores.

Saban stressed to the players the importance of reporting in top physical condition for the rigorous schedule that opens with Miami (O.,) Sept. 24. The opener will be followed by an intersectional clash with Tulane at New Orleans, and conference games with Minnesota, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio State, Wisconsin, Purdue, and Illinois.

The new Wildcat coach and his aides face a sizable rebuilding job in their first season at the Wildcat helm. Replacements must be developed for 18 departing lettermen, eight of whom were regulars last year.

Antioch Collects Village Tags At Road Block

Antioch police set up a street block last week in arresting car owners who have not yet obtained their village vehicle tag.

"They have had 101 days in which to purchase the sticker and that should be about long enough," commented Chief Walter Scott, who conducted the investigation.

Within one hour Clerk Clarence Shultis sold 17 stickers. Those who were arrested must appear before the police magistrate and in addition to buying the sticker may have to pay a fine.

Shultis said that there probably are 100 delinquent car owners.

Chief Scott said that there are so many new residents of the village now that he is having a difficult time identifying those who should have the sticker. The block was set up last year and resulted in a near perfect sale.

Redwings Seek To Check Slump

by TOM KOUROS

This coming Sunday afternoon, August 27, the Arlington Redwings will meet the "Ninety-niners" in another Greater Midwest semi-pro league baseball game to be held at Recreation Park.

The "Ninety-niners" for the past few years have been one of the well-established and formidable Chicago teams. This year, having beaten some of the best squads in the area, the team will certainly necessitate plenty of Redwing ability if they are to be beaten here this week.

Th Redwings have been in a very costly hitting slump during the past 2 weeks. They've dropped their last 4 ball games. Two of these defeats eliminated them from the league championship tournament. Last week they were 7-1 victims of the strong Kolski Boosters. Manager Bud Blumenthal is shaking up his team for this game in an effort to shake the slump. Dick Bokelman will handle the pitching assignment for the locals.

This game should prove to be a real hum-dinger. Redwing fans are urged to see it. Game time is 3 p.m.

Scott Joins Arlington High Coaching Staff

A former marine with a Bachelor's Degree from Evansville college in Evansville, Ind., has filled the vacancy left by John Ligon who resigned last week from the Arlington athletic department.

Robert Scott, 26, will handle the duties of varsity line coach and head frosh-soph track mentor in the 1955-56 Arlington athletic year.

After serving 4 years in the marines, Scott, a 6-0, 210 pounder, tried out for the Cardinals' professional football team this summer but as he had prepared himself for coaching and teaching, he was attracted by the opportunity to work at Arlington Heights. Married and residing in Vincennes, Ind., Scott signed the contract Monday.

WITH SCOTT filling the 2 vacancies in Arlington's coaching plan, Wally Grace, athletic director, announced the complete assignments for the coming school year.

Handling the varsity football squad will be "Bus" Ormsbee with Scott working as line coach. In the Frosh-Soph ranks Bill Beckman will serve as head coach with Dick Mudge working as his assistant. Coaching the yearlings will be Curtis Larsen, assisted by Maurice Kellogg. Russ Attis will coach the cross country team to round out the fall program.

In the winter program Howard Lester and Dick Mudge will be in charge of the varsity basketball and wrestling teams respectively. Ormsbee will handle the JV basketball squad with Maurice Klotz heading the frosh-soph cage contingent and Ken Schaller and Bob Baker coaching the frosh. Mudge again will be assisted by Kellogg as he prepares to guide the wrestlers to a season comparable to the outstanding '54 campaign. Gay Hughes is back at the helm of the defending state gymnastics champions.

IN THE SPRING Russ Attis will handle varsity track, Scott frosh-soph track, with Beckman working as head coach of the weight men. Lester, Ormsbee, and Klotz will be in charge of the varsity, frosh-soph, and freshman baseball teams respectively.

Due to the double shifts there is the necessity for 2 coaches in both tennis and golf for the first time. Ken Schaller is the head tennis coach with Bob Baker handling the younger players. Larsen will try to direct the duffers to another conference championship while Rusty Dowell, former Palatine coach, will take care of the frosh-soph.

The HUNGRY SPORTSMAN By Eddie Meier

Unsmoked Smoked Fish

Fall-caught fish, to us, always tastes just a little better than does the spring and summer catch when smoked and this pet theory must have some weight because many anglers never consider smoking until the autumn days roll around.

Smoking fish is not an arduous task, nor is building a smokehouse difficult. Even so, many feel disinclined to undertake the job, fearing possibly that they would not use it sufficiently to warrant the effort. For them, smoking without a smokehouse is a solution. The resultant product, in our opinion, does not equal truly smoked fish but it is nevertheless very good.

The secret is liquid smoke, which you can buy at your grocery. Here is how it is done. Bring 1 gallon water to a boil, dissolve smoke, depending on the degree of smokiness desired. In another kettle place 10 to 12 lbs. cleaned fish, cover with the smoke brine and slowly bring to a boil. Immediately remove the kettle from the fire and let cool, drain fish thoroughly, wrap each in waxed paper or cellophone and store in a cool place. Or you can seal it in cellophane and freeze.

Name Winners Of Baseball Prizes

Winners of prizes given away at last week's celebration honoring Northbrook's 3 baseball teams were drawn by Warner Bachar, manager of the Chamber of Commerce team for the past 2 years.

Northbrook won the baseball from Crystal Lake Sunday by a score of 5-4. It was played at Greenbriar school grounds.

The Saints coasted to the North Side intermediate league title in Arlington Heights minor league play with only 1 loss marring their record.

Swaps Heads Field In American Derby

Swaps — or his associates anyhow — know what he's up against in his $100,000 match race against Nashua August 31.

But the Kentucky Derby champion from California will be running against quantity "x times x" in next Saturday's 45th renewal of the $100,000 added American Derby over the Washington Park grass course.

The first unknown element is how the swift chestnut will react to his first competition on the turf.

ANOTHER imponderable is what his opposition may be. He apparently has not frightened anybody — yet. On the contrary, at least three foreign breds have been brought to this country with the idea of running in the American Derby.

And there are always the factors that add up to racing luck — or the absence of same.

Possibly the biggest imponderable of all is Trainer Harry Trotsek of Hasty House Farm who sports a well-earned reputation for quietly preparing a comparative unknown for a particular spot.

MISTER BLACK, Sea O Erin, and Platan all have won Chicago stakes for him this year, not necessarily when expected to do so. Platan, purchased at the age of three from George E. Widener, was rested all last year, and he returned to racing only this summer.

His response was to win the $50,000 added Equipoise Mile on Arlington's main track, and to bank $104,650 by winning the Arlington Handicap, the world's richest grass stakes.

Fortunately for Swaps, perhaps, Platan is too old for the American Derby. But Hasty House's Summer Solstice, an Irish-bred three year old, is just the right age...and possibly the right horse to score an upset.

THE GRAY GELDING has won three of five overnight starts and a total of $11,370, which is not impressive at today's prices. But he was given third highest weight of 131 pounds in the Free Handicap which is comparable to the American Experimental Handicap.

Joseph McGrath of Dublin, Ireland's largest breeder and owner, has shipped his Flying Story to this country and the colt is eligible for the American Derby, as is Mrs. Joseph Tomlinson's Irish-bred Ballydonnell.

The conditions for the race were changed this year by Washington Park Executive Director Benjamin F. Lindheimer to make the historic event conform as closely as possible to the English Derby, the three main factors being that it be run over a distance of ground (a mile and three-sixteenths), that it be for three year olds, and that it be run on the grass.

The result has been highly gratifying, for, in addition to the three foreign-bred sophomores, the nomination list includes Swaps, himself sired by the imported Khaled; Clifford Mooers' Traffic Judge and W. L. Ranch's Honey's Alibi, both by the imported sire, Alibhai; Mrs. Jan Burke's Dedicate, by the imported sire Princequillo, and others of foreign extraction.

Base Stealers

Eight men now active players in the majors have stolen 100 or more bases. Earl Torgeson of the Tigers reached the 100-mark on July 22. The others who in their major league career have reached or passed that mark, according to The Sporting News, are Pee Wee Reese, Jackie Robinson, Phil Rizzuto, Mickey Vernon, Richie Ashburn, Minnie Minoso and Elmer Valo. Reese, at the top of the list, had a total of 210. Robinson was next with 180.

Hartman House Captures Rob Roy Golf Lead

A steady, hard fighting Hartman House team beat Dunteman Dairy, 5-2, and moved into the league lead in Rob Roy play. Capt. Ray Meyer won his match easily to spark his team to victory. John Bozik, Art Thorsen, and Wally Schroeder are the team members, who with Ray will be defending their league lead against the L-Nor Cleaners led by Virg Rolfs.

Chief challenger and winners of the Paddock tourney berth, Webber Paint was only able to split with Prospect Hts. Variety, 3½-3½. Next week the painters tangle with Ehler and Wenberg, another tough team led by Dave Brogardt. The last time Len Arnold mixed with Dave he took the short end of the match. Tuesday Ehler and Wenborg downed Wulbecker Furniture, 5-2, and boosted themselves into the first division.

WHEELING BOWL lost a golden opportunity to slide into second place by dropping a 5½-1½ decision to Prospect Hts. Service Station. The Bowlers ran into a gentleman named Prellberg who fired a 37 at them and put the skids to their ambitions. Next week will be the Bowlers' last chance to gain the lead role, but they will have to conquer Mr. Casteel and Co., better known as Park Ridge Stop and Sock who tonight beat Prospect Hts. Pharmacy, 4½-2½. Anything can happen as Bert Casteel will be willing to agree after Tuesday's incident on the eighth hole. His opponents' ball bounced off a caddy cart up to within inches of the hole making it possible for a deuce.

The dark horse team, Smith and Dawson, trounced L-Nor Cleaners, 6-1, to improve their chances to gain one of the first 3 positions. It will take a lot of doing to gain first but then they have a team that could do it. Joe Marcin, Carl Hammerl, Roy Broough and Irv bicki are sporting the league's lowest team handicap. Next week will find them opposing the Dunteman Dairy team. Dunteman's lost for the first time in the past 4 weeks and are not to be taken too lightly.

Kirchhoff Insurance gave Michaels IGA a 5-2 lacing despite Wayne Rolfs' 37. The Michaels' team just couldn't get the breaks most of the season.

Poll Reveals Little Chance Of Spit Ball's Return In Play

There's not much chance of the return of the spitball as a legal pitch in the major leagues.

That comes from The Sporting News. There's been a lot of agitation for return of the pitch, which was outlawed in 1920. So The Sporting News made a poll of the nine members of the Playing Rules Committee. Six of the nine — a two-thirds majority — said they were definitely opposed to bringing back the spitball. Two others said they were in favor of its legalization. The ninth member wouldn't commit himself.

THOSE OPPOSED to legalization were Hank Greenberg, Joe Cronin, Muddy Ruel, Bill Terry, Fresco Thompson and George Fletcher. They said a deinite No. Committee chairman Jim Gallagher and Frank J. Shaughnessy said yes, they would favor return of the spitter. The man who declined to say one way or another was Vincent J. McNamara.

The spitball got into the spotlight recently when a national magazine published a story by Preacher Roe, former pitching star who said that during his seven years with the Dodgers the spitball was his "money pitch." The story created a furor. Roe later said he revealed his secret only for one purpose — to help bring back the spitter as a legal delivery.

THERE FOLLOWED more discussion, pro and con, both in and out of baseball circles. Even Commissioner Ford Frick was on the side of those who believed the spitter should be legalized again. But now, Frick and others who supported him in the discussion may just as well forget about it. The Sporting News' canvass of the rules committee members gives the answer — there will be no return of the spitball within the foreseeable future.

Five of the six members of the committee opposed to the return are former major league ball players. Cronin, general manager of the Boston Red Sox, was one of the game's greatest shortstops with a lifetime hitting mark of .302. Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, hit .313 for an over-all outstanding career. Terry, president of the Sally League, was a star first baseman and manager of the New York Giants and is one of two National leaguers of the modern era to hit .400 or better. His lifetime mark is .341. Ruel, general manager of the Detroit Tigers was a top catcher. And Thompson, vice-president and farm director of the Brooklyn Dodgers, was an infielder and former minor league manager.

AS AN EXPRESSION of how these men feel, here's a quote from Cronin: "It is my opinion that we should leave the game alone. The game is great the way it is. True, there were great players when the spitter was in vogue, but the stars of today could play in any era."

Greenberg pointed out that there are fewer .300 hitters now than there were in his time, and fewer men who get 200 hits a season. The spitter isn't needed, he said. Night ball and the advent of the slider, he said, have given pitchers all they need, and actually has given them the advantage over the pitchers of the past.

And that's about it. The spitter isn't coming back — legally.

Newcomers Golfers Win Prizes In League

Newcomers' golf league of Arlington Heights met last Thursday morning at Old Orchard golf course. The special event scheduled was low total score on the even numbered holes. Prizes were awarded to Ann Mockenhautt, flight A; Vivian Sands, Flight B and Edna Rongner, Flight C.

Hostesses for Thursday, August 18, are Mrs. E. J. Domingue and Mrs. M. Slater. The last golfing date of the league will be August 25. Following the morning's golf a luncheon will be held at the club house for members.

Members who have signed up for the Newcomers' bridge tournament, but have not signed to play on a definite day of the week are reminded to call Mrs. A. J. Baugous at CLearbrook 3-8027. Mrs. Baugous will give players a choice of days on which they may play. Bridge groups are now being formed for the first tournament sessions to begin in October.

Mike Spinello, 17, Mt. Prospect, missed qualifying by 2 strokes in the 10th annual International Jaycee Golf Tournament at the Columbus (Georgia) Country Club. Mike, medalist in the '55 West Suburban golf meet, fired 87-76-163. He entered the "B" tournament Wednesday with 96 other golfers.

Rolling Green Golf

In the 18 hole match play against par, low handicap, Sunday at Rolling Green Country Club, C. Mell captured top honors at 5-up. Runner-up was J. Kehe, 3-up, with J. Sweeney holding third at 3-up.

Smith And Dawson Gains In Old Orchard Scratch

While State & Rand Service and L'Nor Cleaners were struggling for a decisive tie in points in Old Orchard play the Smith & Dawson team came strolling in with 4½ points to place themselves in 2nd place only a point and one-half away from first place. With only 3 more nights of play remaining, the first 4 contending teams are striving to overtake Len Arnold's State and Rand Service jockeys who must face Smith & Dawson and Parkway Liquors before the final position round. L'Nor Cleaners are scheduled to play the Webber Paint Co. and Kamp's Sign Co.—the 4th and 5th place teams. Both Fridays could provide a complete shake-up in the standings.

Last Friday we found State & Rand taking a slight edge over the L'Nor Cleaner's team when Len Arnold beat Dan Musser by one stroke and his team-mate J. Matyas romped over V. Rolfs. B. Waara and F. Steinken halved their match.

An absent member may have kept Smith & Dawson out of first place for Otto Andersen disposed of Avery Harris in a close match when he scored a very fine 36 with which he collected 3 points. R. Hubbs did his bit by subduing Bert Casteel 2 up and the halved match opponents were Mike Graft who sort of slipped this evening and Bob Lee.

BETTER LATE than never may apply to the Parkway Liquor team for they arrived at 5 points Friday when Ed Spacapan's 38 was enough for 2 points and Gene Doyle's 39 helped to gather the team low gross point besides his winning match point. Not to be forgotten Mel Winkelman romped over C. Petersen for his match point. With the team in high spirit and moving now they may cause a mite of trouble for the 2 top teams they must yet face this season.

The Stewart Floor & Tile team is returning to contending power after a couple weeks lapse in playing points. They made the powerful Webber Paint team recede a bit by halving the first 3 matches and picking up 3 points on Marshal Balling's decisive win over Til Foy. Shelby Stewart and Dick Burkett the team's No. 1 men had to exchange 4 holes before deciding on a halve. We heard through the grapevine that Dick Burkett lost the 8th hole while taking a swimming lesson in the pond. Too bad that he didn't have shorts, for it was warm enough. Stewart, Jr. and Jim Rowader exchanged 2 holes before they ended in a tie and identical scores. R. Prellberg and H. Kamps ended likewise in a tie.

American Aircraft Sales Overseas

The American aircraft industry exported $618.9 million dollars worth of aircraft and parts during 1954.

Although this is nearly $260 million under the all-time high set for exports in 1953, it represents the second highest volume the industry has ever sent to the world market in one peacetime year. It is equal to well over three times the total dollar value shipped in all the years prior to World War II, and compares with total exports of $156,940,900 by Britain, the principle competing country during 1954.

Aspirin Deadly In Large Doses

Aspirin can be as deadly as an asp — if eaten in quantities by young children.

The 1955 edition of "Accident Facts," the statistical yearbook of the National Safety Council, just off the press, shows aspirin and the salicylates to be the most common drug killers of young children. Barbiturates are next. All are frequently kept in the family medicine chest within reach of children, the Council says.

Accidental poisoning is one of the principal causes of home deaths among children under five years old. Three main groups of poisons caused 99 per cent of the deaths among children under five years old. Three main groups of poisons caused 99 per cent of the deaths: drugs (35 per cent), petroleum products, of which kerosene is the most important (26 per cent), and products for external use (38 per cent).

Lead is the No. 1 killer among the external use products, and arsenic is second. Caustics, such as lye, cresol and ammonia, rat poisons and fly sprays also rank high. Other dangerous products include shampoos, rubbing solutions, bleaches, moth balls and furniture polish. (G

Chastity Pistols Little Used By Danes, 'cept Warring Cabbies

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Danish women may now carry guns for the protection of their virtue. The authorized model on sale costs less than two dollars and is called a "morality pistol." It has a range of about six feet and ejects, instead of death-dealing bullets, a liquid that stings the attacker's eyes and colors his face blue.

Although it was designed originally for this purpose by a new manufacturer, the gun has seen little use so far in defending chastity. Very little crime of this sort exists. The unique pistol, nevertheless, has been put to service in "the great taxi-drivers' war" of Copenhagen.

TWO OF Copenhagen's taxi companies, irritated by each others' presence in the city, happened upon an "incident" which started the war.

A cab was seen to pick up a passenger in a manner which a rival driver thought was not completely fair. The cabbie with hurt purse and feelings swung alongside of his rival and, in the American gangster style portrayed by Hollywood, raised his morality pistol and blasted his opponent.

WHEN WORD got around, most of the cabbies began packing these pistols. Some even had under-arm holsters and, according to the press, adopted the habit of speaking from the sides of their mouths like American "hoods."

The Danish police, even though most of them carry no guns and circulate the city on bicycles, managed to bring the war quickly to a close.

THE EFFECTS from a direct hit by a morality pistol charge are said to be painful. During the first experiments in developing the gun, a man was paid two-hundred dollars to permit himself to be shot in the face with a single charge.

It was so painful that the Danish police insisted upon a less-effective charge being used. After some moderations, the same man refused to act as a test-subject again, saying that he would not accept another shot for even double the price.

THERE ARE TWO cases of morality pistol use which Danes are currently talking about. The first concerns a woman who shot her husband in the middle of the night, later explaining that she thought he was in bed and that this shadow coming through the door must have been a burglar. The police didn't believe her.

The other case featured a woman who had an itchy trigger-finger and shot somebody whom she thought was coming out of a doorway to molest her. The victim turned out to be another woman!

AS FOR ACTUAL use in defending woman's virtue, the pistol has so far seen almost no service. Danish men just aren't aggresive enough, women have been heard to say, because they'd rather drink a Tuborg beer than pay a woman much attention. (Bill

'The Tender Trap' At Shady Lane

One of the top stage successes of 1955 in New York, Chicago and other cities was "The Tender Trap," which will begin a 6-nights engagement Tuesday, August 23, at Shady Lane playhouse in Marengo. "The Tender Trap" is a comedy about a modern bachelor so pursued by attractive and clever business girls aiming to make him a husband, that he gets confused in juggling his dates and various promises and becomes engaged to not less than two girls in the same evening—a procedure that proves embarrasing and highly uproarious. The play might be subtitled "How to Catch A Husband In Three Acts."

IN ORDER TO be eligible for election to serve as an ASC community committeeman a farmer must be eligible to vote in the ASC committee elections in the community, be residing in the community, not have been removed for cause as an ASC committeeman, delegate to the county ASC convention, or as an employee of a county ASC office, not have been convicted of any frauds, larceny, embezzlement or felony, not be holding or during 1955 have held a federal, state or major county office filled by an election held pursuant to law, not be or during 1955 have been an officer or employee of any political party or organization.

Mr. Bormet stated that eligibility of those farmers nominated by petition will be checked against these regulations before listing their names on the ballots.

NOMINATIONS by petition can be made only if the 10 or more persons signing the petition are eligible to vote in the community ASC election. In order to be eligible to vote in the community committee elections a person must have an interest in a farm in the community as owner, tenant or sharecropper, must be participating in the agricultural conservation program or carrying out on his farm one of the eligible practices covered by that program or be eligible for price support on one or more agricultural commodities he prodces or be eligible for a payment under the Sugar Program.

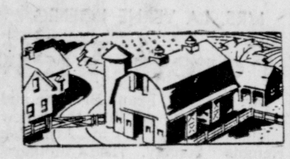

"These voting eligibility regulations are broad enough to include practically all farmers," Mr. Bormet pointed out.

THE CHAIRMAN urged all farmers to watch their mail for the ballot and when they receive it to mark it at once and return it to the county office.

"This is your opportunity to participate in choosing the men who will administer the price support, crop allotment and quota, agricultural conservation and sugar programs during the coming year," Mr. Bormet advised Cook county farmers. (Fm

CARL F. MEES

This Monday morning as I write these notes the North Cook 4-H fair is history. If you attended any or all of the fair you found it both educational and entertaining.

The year 1955 marks the best in 4-H club history in North Cook county. There was the largest and best display of livestock, poultry and vegetables in the history of club work in the county. There were also a record number of 4-H home economics booths exhibited. The quality of all these exhibits was gratifying.

The 4-H members in the livestock division had some very fine livestock while others of it could stand imporvement. We do not expect all of it to be the best for if it were there would be nothing to work for in the future.

OVER ALL I think the projects displayed were encouraging. I was particularly proud of the 4-H queen and king this year, together with rest of the members of the court. Each one of these members was an outstanding 4-H club member. They had all been in club work for three years or longer. Likewise they all have been county and state project honor members.

Marilyn Nickel, Washington 4-H agricultural club was the 4-H queen selected by her fellow club members. She has been in agricultural club work 6 years, having sheep and cattle for projects. She has been in home economics club work 4 years, displayed and modeling a complete wardrobe of her own selection last year at the Illinois state fair, will be a sophomore next year at Iowa State college, Ames, Ia., majoring in home economics.

WESLEY PLOTE, Palatine township 4-H club, was selected king by his fellow 4-H club members. He has been enrolled in 4-H club work for 7 years and has completed projects in sheep, swine and dairy. Wesley will be a senior at Palatine high school next year.

Marilyn and Wesley have earned the honor bestowed upon them. We know they will not disappoint us. Other members of the Queen's Court were, Marlene Krambeer, Clever Clover; Audrey Gronert, Sewing Susies; Pat Henning, Country Cousins; Lois Von Bergen, Future Homes.

Other members of the King's Court were: Roy Nickel, Washington 4-H and Marvin Meyer, Wheeling Do'ers.

All of these members deserve a very special word of praise for they all have outstanding 4-H clu brecords. We hope other 4-H members will strive to achieve these same accomplishments.

ANOTHER very outstanding part of our 4-H fair was the program of entertainment Saturday evening. They were approximately 30 4-H club members who appeared on the 4-H talent program. All of them did a commendable job. It was gratifying to see the talent displayed by these fine young people. We feel sure that if we develop this kind of young people in club work they will not become juvenile delinquents in a few years. Instead they will be the leaders of tomorrow.

Other highlights of the show included the Horse show and Black Horse troop on Sunday afternoon and the evenings of entertainment on Friday and Sunday. It was all good, clean, wholesome entertainment.

THIS ENTIRE program was a success because of the very fine cooperation and hard work of the 4-H leaders and parents, 4-H fair board members, farm bureau board members and many other volunteer workers, Floyd Plumhoff, supervisor of Arlington Park racetrack and to track officials for letting us use these fine facilities.

It is a noble deed from all of you. I would like to say thank you to all of you for a job well done. It could not have become a reality without your cooperation.

To the spectators—if you did not attend the program—you missed a great show but there will be another in 1956 so plan now to attend it.

Rain Helps Corn Crop

Rain and cooler weather came just in time August 4, 5 and 6 to avert serious damage to the corn crop in many sections. Southern Minnesota, the eastern two-thirds of Iowa and northern Illinois and Wisconsin were particularly benefited with rains of between two and three inches. Driest spots now in the country are Nebraska, western Iowa and west central New York. In New York, six counties petitioned to be recognized as a disaster relief area.

The most favorable report of all DeKalb Crop reporters comes from southeastern Indiana. There, wheat and oats are reported as "the best ever," and corn, soybeans, hay and pasture are classed as excellent.

THE CORN CROP continues to be well advanced west of the Mississippi, with Oelwein's DeKalb seed plant expecting to start harvesting about September 15. Seed harvest usually begins at about 30-35% moisture.

Illinois is threatened with the worst corn borer damage in history in the north central section. A large first brood is producing a larger second brook, which is expected to cause much ear dropping and stalk breakage, particularly if picking is delayed.

Early corn is now being harvested in Texas, Alabama and Tennessee. Plentiful earlier rains in Alabama and Tennessee are causing record yields of corn. (Fm

Fewer Farm Folks In State

Food isn't the only product of Illinois agriculture. Agriculture is also contributing valuable "human" resources to the non-agricultural segments of the population.

In other words, the number of people on Illinois farms is dropping. Even though the total population of Illinois has increased 461,000 since 1950, the farm population has decreased 66,000. Farmers now make up only 7.6 per cent of the state's population.

THIS TREND has been under way for many years, says C. L. Folse, University of Illinois farm sociologist. One reason is that modern machinery and improved technology make it possible for fewer farmers to produce more than enough food for our growing population.

Although more farmers are moving out of farming into industrial work, they have been easily absorbed thus far.

THESE COMBINED efficiencies in agriculture and industry mean more goods and a higher standard of living for everybody, Folse explains.

The farm losses are largely young people, he says. As they move out of farming, it means a good-sized loss in money to farmers for rearing and educating them for urban and industrial work.

Pinkeye

Cattle with pinkeye will not eat normally and will slow down in weight gains. (Fm

Suggests Abolishment Of Bushel As Measurement

The old bushel basket is causing a peck of trouble on live stock farms, asserts National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock magazine.

The magazine recommends abolishing the bushel as a system of measurement so that farmers can do all their trading and figuring on a straight hundred weight basis.

Here's why:

THE AVERAGE farmer buys seed in bushels. Adds fertilizer in 100-pound units. Harvests in bushels. Weighs bushels at the grain elevator where they are converted into 100 pounds.

Grain not sold is fed to live stock by the bushel on formulas prepared by land grant colleges and feed manufacturers on a hundred weight basis. Then animals are sold on a hundredweight basis.

IT'S ALL CONFUSING and time consuming — converting bushels into hundred weight and back again. A single common denominator of measurement such as the hundred weight would eliminate much of the confusion in grain transaction, figuring of production costs and feeding values.

What is a bushel anyway? Standard bushel weights for grain are: Wheat 60 pounds; oats 32 pounds; soybeans 60 pounds and corn 56 pounds.

IN ACTUAL TESTS, however, a bushel of wheat varies from 57 to 63 pounds per bushel. Oats from 30 to 38 pounds and corn from 56 to 59 pounds.

Number One soybeans never get up to their 60 pounds standard per bushel — they vary from 54 to 58 pounds.

UI Endowment Farms Set Wheat, Oat Yield Mark

Operators of nine University of Illinois endowment farms set two new wheat averaged 48 bushels on 311 acres, and oats yielded more than 88 bushels on 552 acres. This is an increase of six bushels of wheat and 26 bushels of oats over the previous highs set last year.

GOOD MANAGEMENT practices and favorable weather helped to set these new records, says J. B. Cunningham, University farm management specialist.

Most of the wheat fields were fertilized with 109 pounds of superphosphate and 50 pounds of potassium at seeding time and then top-dressed with 100 pounds of nitrogen in the late winter. Oats didn't get any nitrogen.

Nearly all of the oats and wheat were produced on ground that was in soybeans last year. They soybeans averaged 33 bushels an acre.

IRVIN BECKHART and son, Monticello, led the operators with 54 bushels of wheat an acre. Their three-year average of 49 bushels is also high.

And even though Everett Glasgow, Monticello, didn't seed his wheat until after November 1, he averaged 46 bushels an acre.

Certified Pawnee wheat seed was used on all the farms. It tested below 12½ per cent moisture and weighed more than 60 pounds a bushel at harvest time. It should grade "No. 1 hard red winter," Cunningham says.

Certified Clinton oats were seeded on all the farms except that operated by A. G. Harms, Monticello. Harms used certified Clintland and made the highest yield among the operators—105 bushels on 69 acres.

Register for School

All new students of Elk Grove are urged to register at the school any morning during the week of August 17 to August 24. Since each new student is required to have a physical examination, it is suggested that parents pick up a halth blank at this time. Also farm owners who have migrant children on their farms are asked to have them register on these dates. However, it will not be necessary for them to register if they were in Elk Grove school last June.

4-H Notes

County Achievement Day for North Cook county 4-H clubs was held August 2, at Palatine high school. Each 4-H club member exhibited something relating to each project that she had enrolled in during the past club year. While these exhibits were being judged, 17 girls from various clubs gave demonstrations. The following girls from the Elk Grove area gave demonstrations: Nancy Wichman of the TNT club gave a demonstration on "Peach Salad," Deidre Fisher of the TNT club gave a demonstration on brownies. From the Future Homes club, Judy Kessler gave a demonstration on ginger bread and Susan Horbus showed how to make drop biscuits. Diane Deeke from the Up and Doing club gave a demonstration on the correct way to roll out yeast rolls, and she was awarded the blue ribbon for giving the best demonstration. Judy Moehling, who is also from Up and Doing, gave a demonstration and she was also one of the 6 winners.

From 9 a.m. until 12 noon the exhibits were judged. There were exhibits on flower arrangements, apple pie, fried chicken, gingerbread, handicraft, bread, out-door cooking, canning, freezing, room improvement, biscuits, and each club exhibited one place setting for a party. These exhibits were given either a no star rating, one star or two stars which means the exhibit was very good.

The clothing projects were judged during the morning too. At 1 o'clock the dress revue began. Nancy Wichman from the TNT club led the audience in the pledge to the flag and the 4-H pledge.

The 22 4-H clubs representing North Cook county all presented a club revue by having the girls who enrolled in sewing as a project model the garment they had made, and those that did not take sewing came on stage and stepped forward while the club's moderator told of the individuals projects and honors that she received. As Each club left the stage, all the girls were presented a ribbon for each project that she completed.

After the dress revue winners chosen to go to Glenwood August 4 were announced. One flower arrangement, one picture, and one skirt were chosen. Twenty-three girls were called on stage to model their garments again so that 15 girls could be chosen to represent North Cook county in advanced sewing Sally Wichman from the TNT club, Helen Grimm, Diane Deeke, and Sandra Busse from Up and Doing, and Lois Von Bergen Future Homes were among the 15 winners.

These girls went to Glenwood August 4 to compete with South Cook county winners to find Cook county's representatives to State Fair and Sally Wichman and Sandra Busse were picked to be alternates to the State Fair, Diane Deeke and Judy Moehling were State Fair winners for their demonstrations.

Nancy Wichman celebrated her birthday August 1; she is now 15.

Dr. and Mrs. Egbert W. Fell and Ruth Brady were guests of the William Carters last Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Fell, Mrs. Carter's parents, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Monday. Other guests Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Butler and children, Susan and Paula, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thatcher and their children, Patti and Eddie.

Help! Help!

I would appreciate it if you would call me if your are celebrating a birthday, an anniversary, going on a vacation or if you know anyone who has some news. Thank you.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE
by PAUL LITTLE

Some weeks ago in this column we mentioned that many people who thoroughly love music have a prejudice against chamber music. And, in most instances, they have actually never really heard it; a well-meaning friend on whose judgment they rely may sophisticatedly hold that it is boring and old-fashioned.

This influencing of other people's minds, by the way, is not confined to music; the true test is to experience something for yourself, and only then will you truly know whether it is good or bad for you. In other words, take every music critic — including yours truly — with a grain of salt! All any critic can, or should try to, do is to stimulate your enthusiasm to listen to as much music as you can so as to widen your own enjoyment of it.

BOSTON RECORDS, an enterprising firm which draws its fine artists from the roster of the great Boston Symphony Orchestra, has just issued a 12-inch disc which we consider an ideal introduction to chamber music. The term, "chamber music," came into being during the 18th century when noblemen employed musicians in their household to write original music to be played for guests on festive occasions. Haydn and Mozart earned a livelihood thus, yet some of their greatest masterpieces came into being just from such banal commissions.

On this new lp, we hear Haydn's beautiful C Major Cello and Piano Sonata, Mozart's enchanting Sonata for Bassoon and Cello (in which the lowly bassoon comes into its own as an instrument capable of wit, pleasing tonal color and appealing melody), Beethoven's "Eyeglass" Duet for Viola and Cello, and Jean-Baptiste Breval's Cello and Piano Sonata. This last composer was a contemporary of Mozart and Beethoven, and the sonata is brilliant and engaging. Samuel Mayes, first cellist of the Boston Symphony, is featured soloist, with Susan Pearlman at the piano, Joseph de Pasquale is the violist and Sherman Walt the bassoonist.

A&P Introduces New Instant Non-fat Dry Milk In Local Stores

An instant nonfat dry milk, with the true flavor and protein food value of fresh milk, will be introduced this week in local stores of A & P Food Stores.

The magic milk crystals, so soluble they dissolve instantly even in ice water, are made with a new process developed by a research team at the White House Milk Company, Inc., Manitowoc, Wis., a subsidiary of the nation's foremost food chain.

Researchers said the new process eliminates various preparation and taste problems involved in home use of nonfat dry milk products.

The new process will enable the three-quart size package to be retailed at a cost of under eight cents a quart, or less than half the usual cost of fresh whole milk.

The product is fresh, pasteurized milk from which the butterfat and water have been removed. Company researchers said it contains the same amount of protein, calcium and other minerals, milk sugar and B vitamins

New Ideas In Homes

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. B-303

DESIGN B-303. Circulation between rooms in this house is ideal, using an exceptionally small hall, with access to the front vestibule and the bedrooms without having to enter the living room.

A fireplace is included in the plan, but, if it is omitted, space for a chimney is indicated in one of the closets.

Storage space is liberal, consisting of coat closets in the vestibule and entry, wardrobe closets in the two bedrooms, a linen cabinet and two hall closets.

The kitchen is a pleasant front room with a large dining area and efficient cabinets.

The exterior finish is siding with a touch of stone. Floor area is 976 square feet, with a cubage of 19,032 cubic feet. (DL

Chemicals Seen As Best Control Of Roadside Weeds

Chemical weed control is making America's roadsides safer, healthier and more beautiful at less cost to the taxpayer. Hand cutting is far more expensive and much less efficient.

Roadsides are more attractive after noxious weeds have been eliminated by spraying, according to Homer L. Jacobs, research director of the Davey Tree Expert Co. The chemicals sometimes cause a browning considered unsightly by some people. However, this is only a temporary condition. Soon grass takes over and the natural beauty of the area actually improves. Experts do not spray areas except where unwanted vegetation is present. With hand cutting, weeds and brush resprout and are an annual problem.

Elimination of ugly roadside brush and weeds means greater safety for motorists. Many a blind corner has been turned into a death trap for motorists by brush blocking a clear view of crossroad traffic.

Some people feel roadside brush is needed because of a cover provided for game. Actually, game is better protected if roadside brush is eliminated. In many areas, game is killed off quicker by fast-moving cars or poachers shooting from automobiles.

The health angle is another important factor in an organized chemical weed control program. Eliminating ragweed reduces the pollen count, a boon to hay fever sufferers. And anyone ever exposed to painful poisoning will appreciate major eradication of prolific roadside ivy. (DL

Seed Mixture Provides Best Lawn for Homes

"The only way to have a beautiful lawn at a minimum cost is to plant a seed mixture containing adequate amounts of high quality permanent grass," Louis N. Bass of Iowa State college advised members of the American society of agronomy.

Speaking at the turfgrass session, Bass said, "There is no finer grass available for lawns in areas where Kentucky bluegrass is adapted than that grass itself." He pointed out that bluegrass is suited over a wide variety of conditions in a major portion of the United States.

"A HOME OWNER who buys lawn seed at a low price will probably obtain an unsatisfactory lawn because most low-cost lawn mixtures contain little or no Kentucky bluegrass or other permanent lawn grass," Bass continued. "Pretty pictures on seed packages are sometimes misleading; therefore, the public should be constantly reminded to buy according to analysis and reliable brand rather than package glamour.

"Seed control officials are aware of the unsuitability of much of the so-called lawn seed currently on the market and are contemplating the desirability of setting up official formulas, by states, for lawn seed mixtures, to contain adequate amounts of seed of permanent grasses such as Kentucky Bluegrass and Highland bentgrass," he concluded.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—I'm confused by the terms, wainscot, dado, and chair rail. How do they differ?

A—Wainscot describes a completely paneled wall treatment. A dado is a low wainscot paneling on lower part of a wall, smooth above. The chair rail is the dividing line between a dado and smooth wall above it. Average height of a chair rail is 33 inches, a bit above normal table height.

Q—Have the dark colored roofing shingles gone out of style?

A—No, because hardly any color ever "goes out." If you like dark colors, use them. There are trends in color styling, naturally, and the current one is toward light, cheerful colors. Pastel shades of asphalt shingles are a growing trend in roofing preferences, for example, but the deeper tones—red, green, blue and gray—still remain popular choices.

Q—May I use contrasting woodwork in my rooms?

A—Contrasting color draws attention to wood trim. If you have a large room with beautifully detailed woodwork, you will get a fine effect with contrasting or white woodwork opposed to colored or wallpapered walls. If your rooms are small, we suggest painting woodwork the wall color or background color of the paper.

Stranger Than Fiction

The actual cave described in Tom Sawyer is in existence at Hannibal, Mo.

Color Harmony

Here's a new idea for flower lovers. If clashing background colors threaten to spoil the beauty of a floral arrangement, use a couple of asbestos-cement shingles to mask off unwanted wall or table areas. Felt the underside of each shingle to protect smooth surfaces. Asbestos siding shingles today are made in a wide range of tones and patterns. While this is a novelty use of a popular building material, it indicates the beauty color experts have built into today's smartly styled asbestos siding. (DL

Census Survey

Special supplementary questions designed to find out whether unemployed persons are seeking full-time or part-time work will be asked in the August current population survey, according to supervisor John W. Camit of the census bureau's district office at Chicago.

The current population survey is conducted locally and in 229 other areas of the country each month to collect up to date national figures on employment and unemployment. The survey is being carried out during the week of August 15-19, 1955.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

Having raised the question about what happens in the shadow of any steeple, I want to make some comments about what happens under a particular steeple. This is not a proselyting appeal to come and see, because what we plan is true of many others. I just happen to be more closely acquainted with our plans.

That which is most of all important is that persons may see themselves as a community under God who speaks through His Word and Spirit to remind us of responsibilities within the community in order that we may be prepared for the community of Heaven.

THAT'S A PREACHERLY paragraph, what does it mean? One of the problems in our century is the increase of conformity as a social pattern and the decrease of individualism which is a necessary quality of community. Riesmann speaks of "the lonely crowd." A crowd is a sea of faces, pictured by a cartoonist often as blank faces. They look at the same television shows because a show without a high rating is soon off the broadcasting schedule. They live in the same style of houses because the economics of production has caught up with that industry. They tend to have fewer and fewer personal eccentricities because the "security complex" has created a subtle shadow about the person who is "different."

The first thing which worship must do is restore the realization of individuality. There is One who sees you, who looks into your face directly, who beholds what is in your heart, and who speaks to you, saying, "Dear child," and calling you by name. And then He says, "Behold your brother."

Hymns, prayers — liturgical or directed, readings from the Scriptures, sermons, all should be selected and used with this function in mind. They reveal the living God and the living community. This is not an easy thing to do. Personally, I find that it is well, from time to time, to say, "This is what we are trying to do; watch for it." It's like going hunting; for pheasants you take a dog with one type of training and nature; for rabbits, you take another dog. If you know what you are looking for, you are more likely to see it.

THE SECOND thing which worship ought to do is to challenge us directly at the point where we live. The whole point of the Law and the Prophets throughout the Old Testament is that these people were a covenant-community and that God was seeking to interpret under the covenant.

A sermon is communication between the hearer and the Lord through an intermediary, the preacher. It has not been preached until it becomes communication. As a professor used to say, "Nobody has done any teaching until something has been learned." As the Society of Friends expresses it, "the Word should speak to my condition," or I should learn my condition under the force of the Word.

The Word must be relevant to the life we lead. It may suggest improvement; or it may suggest that we all live under sin. But it should also inform us that grace and forgiveness are available. All of us seek changes in our lives; we yearn to know what sort of changes and how they may be

Consumption of Meat Increases, Prices Down

Retail food counters are currently being stacked with record supplies of meat at lower prices, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago states in its monthly review, "Business Conditions." Huge quantities of steaks, chops and poultry are expected to boost meat consumption to an all-time high by year end. In fact, U. S. consumers will probably eat about 185 pounds of meat per person in 1955 — three pounds above last year's record level.

What's more eighty-nine cents will now buy as much meat as Mrs. John Doe could purchase for a dollar last year. The sharpest price decline occurred in pork, down 16 per cent, though some price weakness has developed in beef and lamb.

IN SECOND HALF of this year meat supplies will undoubtedly continue to exceed their year-ago volume, although by less than the 7 per cent gain shown in the January-June period. The output of pork probably will run about 10 per cent higher while the supply of beef and veal is likely to top year-earlier levels by a much narrower margin.

Another factor encouraging consumers to buy more meat — aside from lower prices — has been the rising level of employment and consumer income. With bigger pay checks in their pockets, consumers have spent freely at food stores.

SINCE MID-1954, retail sales of food have averaged 6 per cent above their year-ago level. Most of this increase, however, represent a shift to items which offer more built-in services, such as prepared, packaged and "ready-to-serve" foods. In addition, increased sales have resulted from the trend toward consumption of the more desired and often more expensive foods — quality vegetables, fruits and meats.

As to livestock prices received by farmers, pressure from larger marketings of hogs and grain fed cattle is expected to keep them below 1954 levels. Nevertheless, the impact on these prices may be softened somewhat by the willingness of consumers to spend more as a result of currently rising personal income. (BB

Now in the Far East after being stationed at Charleston Air Force Base, Charleston, S. C., Donald G. There are news items in it regarding buddies and former high school mates which mean so much to a serviceman away from home. While a letter from home keeps me in touch with the immediate family it cannot convey to me what your paper does cover."

At Chanute

Cadets Michael Hawkins, Robert R. Hawk, Paul A. Otto, and Sandra Baker, Arlingon Heights youths, were four of approximately 225 cadets from the Illinois wing of the Civil Air Patrol participating in the 1955 summer encampment at Chanute Air Force Base, Rantoul, August 6-14.

Each cadet received 40 hours of training in military courtesy and leadership, Air Force and CAP organization, parachute packing and operation, aircraft identification and capabilities, aircraft maintenance, survival equipment and weather.

The objective of the summer encampment is to provide CAP cadets with an opportunity to gain a working knowledge of the operation of an Air Force Base and to acquire a military atmosphere by making available to the cadets, quarters, food service, medical and recreational facilities normally provided for Air Force personnel. The training is designed to familiarize CAP cadets with the scope of the U.S. Air Force technical training program and to show by practical demonstration the relationship between vocational training in the Air Force and similar training in the aviation industry in civilian life.

Cadet Hawkins, resides at 831 S. Vail; Cadet Hawk at 1103 Watling road; Cadet Otto at 636 W. Campbell street; and Cadet Baker at 1425 St. James Place.

Intricacies Of Diesel Locomotives To Be Shown In Powerama Show In City

Those nonchalant characters who go over Niagara Falls in a barrel have much in common with Gertrude the Goldfish.

Gertrude doesn't know it yet but she is destined to swim within an eighth of an inch of 25,000 volts of very hot electricity some thirty times a day come August 31. One volt is enough to kill a goldfish.

There's one big difference between the Niagara riders and Gertrude, however. The barrel boys take horrible chances, but Gertrude will flip her shapely fins right next to crackling death in perfect safety.

SHE'LL BE SAFE because a group of engineers at Electro-Motive division of General Motors did a lot of work over the last chemical industries. The real reason Gertie doesn't get fried explains why a lot of distressing things do not happen in the expensive innards of a traction motor of a diesel locomotive.

The reason is a new insulating material called Teflon which encases the cable that carries the 25,000 volt jolt through the bowl in which Gertrude swims, as one of the exhibits in the theme center building at the General Motors Powerama on Chicago's lake front Soldier Field area August 31 through September 25.

The use of the remarkable new material Teflon is but one of the improvements in the control of high voltage electricity which will be portrayed in the exhibit as one phase of the many advances in design of diesel locomotives.

OTHER DISPLAYS will show advances in control apparatus for diesel locomotives. For instance, one relay which used to stand two feet high and be a foot thick has been replaced by an Electro-Motive-designed device about the size of an ordinary cake of bath soap.

One section of the theme center will house a series of demonstrations that will help the layman understand why the diesel engine has brought such great advances in railroading. One diesel horsepower in a General Motors locomotive handles two tons at top speed in a freight train. And four horsepower handles two tons in a high speed passenger train. Most two ton automobiles today have 180 horsepower.

THE POWER of a diesel engine is portrayed by a reproduction of what happens in a standard railroad diesel cylinder when the fuel oil burns. Instead of exploding the fuel in the standard cylinder Electro-Motive will blast it off in a thick walled pyrex tube two feet in diameter and thirty feet high.

Thus released from confinement the flame will explode out the top of the pyrex tube. It is left to the visitor to imagine the force with which such an explosion jams a piston down when confined in a Diesel cylinder only ten inches high and seven and three quarters inches in diameter. The horrible heat that must be controlled in a Diesel engine also is demonstrated.

Bits 'O Business

During the first half of 1955, the department of commerce reports, dividends by corporations were 11 per cent above the total for first half 1954 ... Terrific heat cut back New York City department store sales to 5 per cent below the year-ago mark, after several weeks of increases ... Cotton output for 1955 was forecast at 12,728,000 bales by department of agriculture. Largest private forecast had been 11,875,000 bales.

Fox Lake Closes Tavern; Destroys Legion Slots

Confiscation of slot machines at Fox Lake American Legion Club and closing of the DuBell tavern in that town because of "unsanitary conditions" were two recent actions of village officials.

Reopening of the tavern will take place after a two-week closing if sanitary conditions are met, according to the village mayor.

Three slot machines were removed from the Legion Club on Rte. 12 after federal notice was given publicly that a stamp had been purchased for one machine. While the other two machines were not in use and there were no federal stamps for them, they were "pulled" nevertheless as a law violation. They will be destroyed.

Western Electric Company Picnic

Fourteen hours of fun and frolic have been slated for Sunday, August 21, by the Western Electric company's Hawthorne hunting and fishing club, when the organization holds its annual picnic at Fox River Grove. Attendance at the event, scheduled to run from 9 a. m. to 11 p.m., is expected to exceed 5,000. Frank Zawila, 2845 S. Hamlin ave., Chicago, is chairman of the picnic.

Entertainment and participation-fun will be provided for all age groups, from two years of age and up. Games, dancing, contests, children's rides, sports and music all are on the program. Among the special features will be the club's traditional "gol-fish" game, scored like golf but played with a casting rod.

DESIGN FOR LIVING

Building - Remodeling - Improving

Dollar Day was the usual crowded affair in Arlington Heights Monday as housewives by the hundreds flooded the town, taking advantage of outstanding offers. The above scene at Lorraine-Anne shop is representative of the crowds of shoppers. Two policemen were called to Hartmann Shoe store to calm the ladies in near-riot proportions. The promotion was advertised in all 20,000 copies of Paddock Publications' 9 editions last week. —Staff Photo

Management Course

Theodore W. Kleisner, 602 E. Park st., Arlington Heights, superintendent of service, Commonwealth Edison company, will be a participant in the next session of Northwestern university's institute for management, an executive development program now in its fifth year.

He is among 37 top busines executives who are going to school for four weeks as members of the versity's graduate commerce division, the program has attracted executive "students" from 15 states and two foreign countries for the current session.

Since the program's inauguration in 1951, more than 300 executives from nearly 150 companies have lived and studied on the Chicago campus where all sessions of the institute are held.

Small classes, heated discussions, and case studies of management problems highlight the institute's program, said Richard Donham, dean of the commerce school. Executives spend four hours daily, five days a week, in classes and another eight hours a day preparing for classes. (BB

Arlington Firm Gets Franchise For Unique Water Conditioner

Arlington Window and Awning co. has been given the exclusive franchise of the new Evis Water Conditioner.

Ken Carter, president of the local firm, said the Evis Water Conditioner is relatively inexpensive and effective in developing lather for soap, washing and rinsing clothes properly, eliminating bad water taste, and ending iron stains and scum in bowls.

The Evis is a unique unit that is small, compact, and, according to Carter, can be installed and show results in less than 10 minutes. The Evis treats both hot and cold water systems.

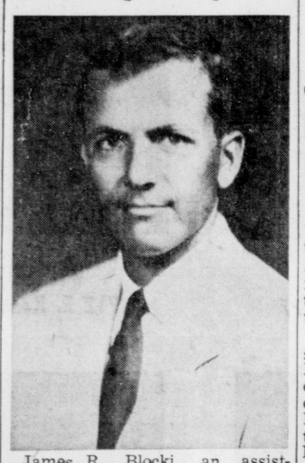

The new water conditioner was introduced on an experimental basis 2 years ago and is now in full production for home and industrial use. It will be on display at Arlington Window and Awning co., 1510 W. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights.

"Evis Water Conditioner does not remove any minerals from the water but treats it in such a manner that in washing, the soap is allowed to do its full work and does not combine with dirt and minerals to form soap curds and sticky scum," said Carter. (BB

Clothes On Way For Lane Bryant Opening

Lane Bryant, Inc., women's specialty chain, who will open their new Hubbard Woods branch store, Thursday, August 25, shipped over 3500 pre-ticketed garments by trailer from New York this week.

The firm, who first experimented with the idea 2 years ago, at the opening of their Milwaukee unit, found it an excellent plan. The newest type Gilbert Carrier Corporation trailer, was leased by Lane Bryant. Then, in an 8-hour operation, the firm loaded the garments on hangers, in the trailer especially built for the purpose of transporting merchandise in this manner.

The goods, all pre-ticketed, will leave New York Thursday evening, August 18, and arrive in Hubbard Woods early Saturday morning, August 20, well ahead of time for the opening on the 25th. (BB

Slight Drop In Home Permits

Records of building in the Chicago region show that July is no barometer on which to base forecasts of rises or declines in construction and we mention this to ward off any pessimism due to July 1955 reports of permits issued.

All building in July amounted to $87,615,507, a decline of nearly $18,000,000 from the high June total of $105,453,200. Permits for homes dropped from 4,777 in June to 4,015 in July, a slump of 726 homes and nearly $9,000,000.

Months may come and months may go, some are good, some are bad, but in the long run it's the year that matters—and 1955 still looks mighty good. July's total is nearly $16,000,000 ahead of that of July a year ago and the seven months' total shows a gain of more than $137,000,000 over the same period of 1954. Chicago is $27,000,000 ahead, the suburban towns, $78,000.000, the unincorporated areas, $28,000,000 and atomic energy building more than $3,000,000.

Busy Bees 4-H Model At 4-H Fair

Busy Bees 4-H club of Palatine modeled the skirts and matching sholes they had made at a fashion show they presented during the 4-H fair Friday night, August 12. Out of 40 members in the club 29 were present.

Busy Bees display booth featured dolls dressed in skirts and stoles to match the girls'. The booth plus the bridal display won a blue ribbon.

The 7 club leaders have expressed their pride in the girls' accomplishments and are planning big things in September.

Oats Are Good Dairy Feed

Oats make excellent feed for dairy cows when used in a grain mixture, says Carl F. Mees, farm adviser.

In fact, high producers are less apt to go "off feed" when a bulky feed like oats or wheat bran is included in the grain mix.

Oats are nearly equal to corn in feed value for good milk production. They contain a little more protein than corn, but the corn has more energy value.

IN ADDITION TO their nutritive value, oats are highly palatable. They also add bulk when fed with such heavy grains as corn, barley or wheat.

Feed dairy cows oats crimped or ground to a medium fineness. You can feed them whole to calves less than eight months of age.

Since we have a good oat crop in this county this year we should give attention to adding oats to our rations if you are not already doing so.

Farm People Are Asking

by JULIUS BERMAN

In my last article I stated a self-employed farmer for social security purposes is a person who operates a farm either as owner, lessee, or renter. The way in which you pay for the use of the land which you do not own does not matter. It may be money rent or any other kind of rent. A common non-cash rental arrangement is the share-renting arrangement under which the share-farmer pays a share of the crop or livestock raised to the landowner for the use of the land.

For social security purposes, a share-farmer is considered a self-employed farmer. By "share-farmer" I mean a person who undertakes to produce a crop or livestock on another person's land with the crop or its proceeds to be divided and with the amount going to each depending on the amount of the crop or the number of livestock produced.

TO BE SELF-EMPLOYED, a share-farmer must have the responsibility for the production of a crop during the growing season. Moreover, the share-farmer's arrangement with the farm owner must be one whereby the share-farmer's earnings from operating the land are a percentage share of the total crop produced or livestock he raises.

While a self-employed share-farmer is one who enters into an agreement to produce a crop or livestock on land belonging to someone else, it is not necessary in all cases that he do every part of the job. For example, a landowner may have planted or set out the fruit trees, bushes, or plants in former years and turned over their cultivation and care to a share-farmer. In another situation, the landowner might undertake to harvest or sell the crop produced by the share-farmer. Neither of these circumstances would prevent the share-farmer from being considered self-employed.

THE PHRASE "to produce a crop or livestock" does not mean that a share-farmer must necessarily assume responsibility for paying the expenses of raising or harvesting the crop. Seed, feed, fertilizer, tools, machinery, insecticides, etc. may be shared or provided entirely by the farm owner. As long as the share-farmer has the responsibility of farming the land during the growing season on a percentage of the crop or proceeds arrangement he is a self-employed share-farmer for social security purposes and his net earnings from such work are building old-age and survivors insurance protection for him and his family.

If the farm owner also participates in the crop production, and at the same time shares responsibility for any losses as well as profits, such as arrangement is more likely to be a business partnership. Both parties, then, are self-employed farmers for social security purposes. I shall discus such farm partnerships in my next article. (Fm

What The Acidity Test Can Reveal About Your Soil

The only way to find out whether your soil needs limestone, and how much it needs to the acre, is to make a systematic test of each of your fields, says Carl F. Mees, farm adviser.

Even different areas of a single field will often vary in their need for lime. Soil tests may show that one area doesn't need limestone, but slightly acid land needs two tons to the acre, medium acid land needs three tons and strongly acid land needs four tons or more.

Put on the correct amount of lime. If three or four tons are needed to correct acidity, two tons won't do the job. But four tons should not be spread where two tons are required.

In Cook County the pH is used. It measures alkalinity—the opposite of acidity. A "neutral" soil—neither acid nor alkaline—has a pH value of 7. Readings above 7 indicate alkalinity. As the readings drop below 7, the soil becomes more acid.

However, a pH of 6.2 to 6.7 is considered most favorable for most crops. Soils in this range grow good legumes.

Centennial Farm Show At Michigan State

The story of farm and home mechanization in the past 100 years will be told at Michigan State college, East Lansing, August 15 through 20.

At least a quarter of a million people are expected to visit the 100 acres of farm and home equipment, pageant and demonstrations as part of Michigan State's year-long centennial celebration. The college, first to teach agriculture as a science, was established in 1855.

MSC's agricultural engineering department, headed by Arthur W. Farrall, has taken the lead in planning the show with the help of many other groups interested in home economics and agriculture.

The setting will be professionally designed. But scientists, technicians, extension specialists and educators will help in telling the story of engineering in agriculture.

Taking on the atmosphere of a world's fair, the large outdoor exhibit area will have machines of the past to compare with the modern, some of which the public will see for the first time. Foreign machines will also be displayed.

Agricultural authorities predict that visitors will go away with dozens of new ideas and a better understanding of the opportunities in our modern mechanized economy, which involves an investment of 160 billion dollars in the agriculture plant. This will be the most complete assembly of farm and home equipment ever made in this country.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For the Home

Frame Your Memo Slate

HERE'S a clever way to make an attractive memo slate for your home:

Take an old picture frame; the size isn't important. Give it a good cleaning and sanding. Then prime and enamel it to suit the surroundings in which you plan to hang your memo slate. For best results, sand lightly between coats.

Now you'll need a piece of Masonite Tempered Presdwood to fit the old frame. Take it from your stockpile or buy some at the lumber yard. Also obtain some chalkboard paint, either black or green Follow the manufacturer's directions for preparing the Presdwood and applying the slate surfacing material.

Finally you mount the chalkboard in the frame. A piece of scrap aluminum bent into a U shape or a discarded venetian blind slat screwed to the bottom of the frame makes an excellent trough for a piece of chalk.

You now are ready to hang the memo slate in a convenient place.

Unframed chalkboards may be made in any useful size, too. They are excellent for grade school youngsters.

WHAT THE ACIDITY TEST TELLS ABOUT YOUR SOIL

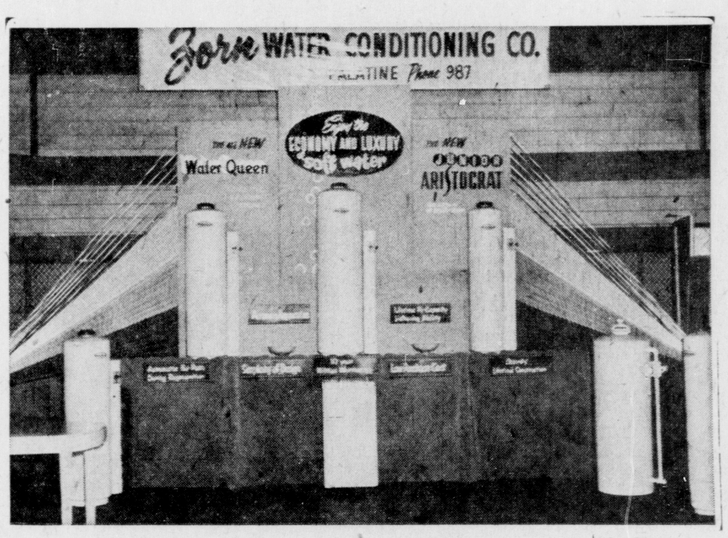

We Salute America's Youth!

Outstanding work accomplished by the youth of this area, as exemplified in the exhibits of animals and produce at the 4-H Fair, were a credit to your ability and determination. We liked your show.

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money," — H. C. Paddock, 1898-1935

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

Fifty Years Ago

August 18, 1905

Mrs. C. H. Zachow, Palatine, died of old age Wednesday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacobson, in Chicago.

H. L. Scharringhausen is farming the 10-acre Koelle farm in Highland Grove during his spare time.

William Stephens is the new cheese-maker in Quentin Corners.

The Night Owl club held its regular meeting in Bensenville Sunday and elected the following officers: president and manager, Prof. Fredericks; assistant manager, Long Louis; treasurer, Capt. Ed; secretary, Hot Ed; assistant secretary, Alexandra, and board of directors, Lucky Barney, Gloomy Gus and Coon Case. The Night Owls plan to put up electric fans in their clubhouse this year.

Ed Martens, H. Bolte and Elmer Sigwalt of Elk Grove went fishing in Lake Zurich Sunday.

John Arps of Cary visited G. H. Arps in Palatine last weekend.

Mrs. Ernest Hoelz has brought verbal complaint against Arlington Heights for injuries she says she sustained while walking across an improvised sidewalk on W. Campbell st. She is seeking $200.

George Klehm Jr. has bought a tractor and has already rented 104 acres for next year's practical experiment which he will seed mostly with winter wheat.

Gilbert Stellmann, married only a year ago, did July 29 from typhoid fever at the age of 23. Born and raised in Bensenville, he had been living in Forest Park in a new home the past few months.

Herman Wendt, who had resided on a farm southwest of Bensenville the past 36 years, died unexpectedly Thursday night at 57 years of age.

Emil Krueger, who worked for Louis Schoenbeck for several seasons in Schaumburg before disappearing suddenly a few weeks ago, wrote Mr. Schoenbeck the other day from South Dakota explaining that he was slugged and robbed one night and awoke to find himself in the western state.

Deputy Sheriff E. H. Meyer and family of Arlington Heights returned Sunday after a week's vacation in the northern lakes.

Thirty Years Ago

August 14, 1925

Mrs. Ernestine Wichmann was among those who went up in the air in the aeroplane Sunday. She is 55 years old but is game for all kinds of fun. This has been a great ambition, to see her home town as the birds see it.

William Niemeyer of Arlington Heights now drives a new Chrysler car.

William Busse, Jr. of Mount Prospect has returned from his vacation and is ready to serve his customers with the same old smile and courtesy.

Seventeen members of the Itasca Women's club and a few guests motored to Dundee last Wednesday to visit the pottery.

A surprising number of automobiles and trucks have been registered under the new Bensenville vehicle tax law. Registered are 171 passenger cars and 35 trucks. This is surely a good revenue and is indicative of the good financial condition of the citizens of Bensenville.

Arrangements are all but completed for the joint picnic of the DuPage County farm bureau and the Milk Producers' association, which will be held next Wednesday in Lisle.

Twenty Years Ago

August 16, 1935

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Sunburn and sand, peeling shoulders and legs, plus the lure of the open road have claimed thousands of victims during the summer vacation period. Millions of miles have been chalked up on speedometers of millions of cars. The trip to Yellowstone, Boulder Dam, or Canada, made with the speedometer often showing 80 or 90 miles per hour has resulted in frayed nerves and weary bodies. I wonder if it all pays.

I wonder particularly since within the radius of 300 miles from the average home town there are vacation spots where rest and relaxation can be enjoyed to the utmost and the weary worker can find time to relax and renew himself. In Illinois there are hundreds of historical or beauty spots where peace and self renewal can be had, as well as knowledge about the home state gained. Springfield, New Salem, Kaskaskia, Navoo, the Rock River valley are all strangers to many an Illinoisian, as are Galina (General Grant's home), the Palisades and other beautiful or historical spots.

SO WHY NOT CHOP that two weeks up into several week ends, learn a little more about our home state, and go back to work on Monday without a hangover from long, hard driving that is not only exhausting, but dangerous?

Sure California is wonderful, and it is nice to say you've been there. So are Florida and Colorado. But Illinois is just as wonderful and it's close by. It takes hard driving to make it to California and back in two or three weeks; and when you get home, vacation is over for you in 1955; but if you split it up, you've always got three or four days coming for vacation and sightseeing, and you won't have to learn about Illinois from strangers who have paid a visit here, seen Chicago and the state's historical spots, and can go home and tell about it.

Try it this year, folks. A long trip is fine once in a while, that's for sure. But a lot of small trips to places where you can learn, rest and relax can be even better.

Chair Rental

IN BEHALF of Palatine association for Boys Baseball, may I express our sincere gratitude to the Palatine centennial committee for their generosity in allowing us to retain the entire amount of profit from the rental of chairs during the centennial parade. This amount, $540, will aid materially toward upholding the high standards set by P.A.B.B. including complete outfits and equipment for 400 boys.

It was a most pleasant experience working with the centennial committee, and we are indeed grateful for their cooperative feeling towards organized baseball in Palatine.

Educator Praises Evening Program of Arlington High

More residents of the northwest area should take advantage of Arlington Heights' high school adult education program.

That was the conclusion this week of an evening college administrator visiting the northwest suburbs to examine high school adult education programs. He found Arlington Heights to have one of the best.

"This community's high school staff is to be congratulated," said T. J. Waggoner Jr., assistant to Dean Frank Neuffer of the University of Cincinnati Evening College, which this fall expects a total enrollment in excess of 10,000 adults students.

He was quick, however, to differentiate between an evening college and high school adult education program.

"The high schools are doing a magnificent job," said Waggoner, "in assisting adults finish high school educations or in broadening their cultural and leisure time interests."

An evening college, he explained, is primarily concerned with providing adults with only spare time study an opportunity to earn a college degree.

"This whole area of adult education is expanding," said the administrator. "The rapid growth of evening school has been due in part to an expanding population, but also because the value of a college education has become universally accepted."

He also cited new social and economic demands and the insistance of employers that employees be college educated for higher enrollments in the nation's colleges.

"Adults now have more time for study and the development of leisure time interests," continued Waggoner. "Part-time study is becoming a popular pastime. That's why programs such as the University of Cincinnati and Arlington Heights high school offer are important."

Waggoner added that he was also impressed with the high level of schooling in the northwest suburbs.

More than 765 adults in Mount Prospect and more than 1500 in Arlington Heights have had college training. While the median years of schooling in most areas is only 9 or 10 years, it is over 12 in both towns.

"This may be one reason why there is interest in night study," he said.

The University of Cincinnati Evening college offers more than 300 credit courses in commerce, engineering, arts and sciences, applied arts, and graduate divisions. There are also a number of short-term courses for non-credit.

In addition to his administrative duties, Waggoner teaches English composition in the evening division.

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Water Service

A majority of the trustees of the Arlington Heights village board refused, at our meeting August 9, to approve certain water system improvements that had been recommended by the village engineers.

As a member of the board and chairman of the water committee I wish to take this opportunity to publicly protest this decision with the hope that the other members can be pursuaded to recognize the needs of the village and reconsider this action.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS has plenty of water available — truly an unlimited supply — yet it is worthless to us when we are unable to mechanically pump this supply into the system faster than it is consumed. With the plan of being able to keep our water utility ahead of the demand the engineers prepared a water system report for the entire village. This report, and its master water plan, was accepted by the village board (this was way before the election) and the engineers were instructed to prepare plans and specifications for the first stage. This included the interconnection of the wells (they now feed independently into the system) and the construction of feeder mains.

This work was specifically recommended by the engineers for immediate construction for this stage represents the foundation upon wihch the overall system is based. Without it our house is built on sand and we can look forward to even lower pressures and more inadequate supply.

THE COST of this first stage is approximately $150,000 and it will take 11 months to complete. If we are going to get any improvement to our system before next summer the work must be started without further delay.

We have sufficient ear-marked funds which, when coupled with the income over the period of construction, will be adequate to entirely pay for this improvement without having to resort to the issuance of bonds. It is my personal belief that improvements to the existing system should be paid out of income on a pay-as-you-go basis. The ability to pay-as-you-go is an enviable position for a municipality and reflects a healthy situation. Our water utility is not static—nor can it ever be—it's a living, growing thing that will never be completed.

OUR VILLAGE board proposes another change in policy which I have fought right down the line: the manner of paying for public improvements in new developments. The previous board had strict requirements which were rigidly enforced without exception. Each builder had to pay in advance for the entire cost of the public improvements in his development. It was the attitude of the previous board that Arlington Heights was a mighty fine place and if builders wanted to build in this "mighty fine place" bad enough they'd find a way to comply with our requirements. We wanted the builders to "want" to build in Arlington.

Our new board, however, is about to let the bars down for the builders. An ordinance setting forth the new, easy requirements has already had one reading and unless a miracle happens it will be adopted at our meeting August 16. Then we can all watch the "houses go by."

Summer Play

I should like to express my gratitude to the Arlington Heights Park Board for the splendid summer program they have provided for our children. Arlington Heights, too, is a neighborhood of "Live Kids" and "We Love Our Children" as traffic signs do indicate.

To teach the older children the true meaning of good sportsmanship and to keep little children pre-occupied and develop the skillful use of their nimble fingers to turn out a finished product they are happy, pleased, and satisfied which has most certainly been accomplished by the instructors and children in the South Park summer program.

THE INTEREST, enthusiasm, spirit of cooperation and feeling of accomplishment has been most predominant!

Much credit goes to Miss Janet Siegel and Miss Violet Jeffery instructors of the South Park for their interest, patience, kindness, love and understanding expresed to these children whom they worked with every day.

A word of thanks also goes to the Arlington Heights Lions Club who follow up this splendid program with the Lions Olympics, Parade on Wheels, and presentation of ribbons and trophies in handicraft and sports.

AS A TEACHER and mother of two I would like to say a happy summer, well spent by all who participated in the park recreation program has come to a close. May we continue to have more such splendid programs in the future for our eager little ones who feel their time was profitable and well spent!

Hospital Center

We wish to express our most sincere thanks to Paddock Publications for the splendid publicity it gave our project in raising money for the proposed Northwest Community hospital center.

We also wish to thank 4-H officials for granting us the use of a booth at the 4-H fair and also all those who supported our cause. A special thanks goes to the teenagers and small fry who helped us top our goal of $1,000.

We are grateful to the business people for their efforts extended for our project in the towns of Arlington Heights, Palatine, Barrington, Mt. Prospect, Wheeling and Prospect Heights.

Little League

I would like to thank Paddock Publications and its editor, S. R. Paddock for giving me space in their paper to report Mt. Prospect Little League games.

It has been a great pleasure for me to write them up and I only hope it has given the papers many readers some enjoyment in reading them.

Salt Creek

I would like to ask our Palatine Mayor what we can do about the council using the $27,000 that had been paid by them for the sewer tax for draining, etc., of Salt Creek?

JUST from Patty McArdle AROUND THE CORNER

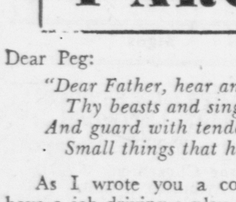

Dear Peg:

"Dear Father, hear and bless
Thy beasts and singing birds;
And guard with tenderness
Small things that have no words."

As I wrote you a couple of weeks ago, I have a job driving a play class to and from their teacher's house every day. I believe I also mentioned that on one of those days we take a field trip to some interesting and not too distant attraction (last week we made a tour of the local dairy). Today we went to Orphans of the Storm—Irene Castle Enzinger's refuge for mistreated or unwanted animals. The children loved seeing the many well-cared for and friendly dogs and cats, enjoying their comfortable country home in the woods just west of Deerfield on Saunders Road.

I had never visited Orphans of the Storm before, and was quite impressed with the clean and well kept grounds, cages and dog houses. The caretaker, a very kind man and obviously a lover of animals, took us past the cages of cats, where in one we saw a beautiful Siamese cat and in another a lovely gray Maltese. Beyond these cages, he pointed out the contagious ward — a series of cages set apart and kept for the sick animals. From here we went over to the dog pens. I saw some of the prettiest dogs I've ever seen and some of every variety—cockers, German shepherds, terriers, a great Dane, boxer, bull dog, blood hound and even an Afghan hound. All these dogs and cats are for adoption, provided the proper home can be found. The staff is extremely careful to investigate the home and be sure that the family will give the dog the same loving care and attention that he receives at the "Orphans."

ORPHANS OF THE STORM was founded 27 years ago by Irene Castle Enzinger. Until last year, she worked untiringly at the refuge, however, now has gone into partial retirement, spending part of the year at her ranch in Arkansas. "Orphans" is supported entirely by voluntary contribution and does the pound work for 25 north shore and northwest suburbs without compensation. The officers, directors and members serve without any pay and the small staff, who carry on the operation of the shelter, receive salaries far below what they would in factories or other commercial activities and why do they do this? Simply be[illegible] they firmly believe that all animals should be treated humanely and want to live that belief. If animals do not have homes, then homes should be provided for them and if homes cannot be found for them, then they should be mercifully put to sleep. Furthermore, they firmly believe that it is a criminal act to cruelly destroy your unwanted pet or to dump it out along the road or at a farm house. Mrs. Enzinger has fought valiantly against proposals that come up periodically to do away with humane societies, laws and requirements concerning rabies shots that make it such a nuisance to own a dog and the cruel practice of vivisection in medical laboratories.

In the brochure are pictures of poor animals horribly mistreated by their own masters whom the "Orphans," as a humane society, though sued, rescued. Mrs. Enzinger does not believe that we should be concerned with rabies shots, as the use of such serum "adds to the profit of commercial drug manufacturers, lobbyists and well paid professional persons." In her 27 years experience with her shelter she has never given rabies serum to her dogs and though she and her staff have been bitten numerous times, they have done nothing more than treat the wound like any other. As for the case against vivisection I wholeheartedly agree with Mrs. Enzinger. It is inhuman. These words of Rev. James Harry Price, rector of the church of St. James the Less, Scarsdale, N. Y., clearly explain why as Christians we cannot tolerate such a practice:

"THE CASE AGAINST vivisection rests upon the proposition that the practice is absolutely wrong, and bad in principle. That therefore all men, as rational beings, are morally obligated to oppose vivisection. It can never be made right by maintaining that it produces 'good' results. Whether it does lead to such results is highly questionable and certainly not demonstrable. But even if it produces 'benefits to mankind,' as the vivisectors claim, this no more justifies it than Fascism could be justified because Mussolini ran the trains on time. Pain is final and absolute to the endurer of it. If A avoids pain today, that neither lessens nor alters the pain that yesterday agonized B. We oppose vivisection because it deliberately inflicts pain for unpredictable ends.

"It therefore leads to needless and useless suffering. It is therefore cruel and brutalizing in its effects. And cruelty and brutality and contrary to the Natural Moral Law and the teaching of Religion as revealed in both Old and New Testaments."

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

We have been following the activities of the visiting firemen from Russia with a great deal of glee. We are afraid that our knowledge of modern Russia is so slight as to be almost non-existant.

We sort of had the idea that the country is populated with a lot of stern looking men and women, dressed rather somberly, all working for one common pot. As we understand things, luxury is more or less frowned on as a capitalistic manifestation.

Then we read in the paper the other day that some of the boys in the visiting delegation spent the afternoon visiting one of the biggest capitalists in this area. Mr. Cuneo, Cuneo Press and Hawthorne Mellody Farms, was host to the delegation. According to the article, relations were most pleasant as they were served by a waiter in a rather large house.

The rest of the boys, who may not have been invited or whose principles kept them from going, were slumming around in the Conrad Hilton hotel. We have spent the day in very idle conjecture as to what comments the delegation will be making to their superiors when they return to the motherland.

Either they are going to claim that this country is going to the dogs because we are so trod upon by the wealthy or they are going to figure out some way to claim that they REALLY discovered America and are REALLY our parent nation. We think.

It is so funny to watch and read about these visits of foreign groups. When some of our boys go someplace, that place dresses up and shows their very best foot. When the foreign gang comes here, everyone goes home and writes a book about Inside Podunk Iowa or Life on the Steppes. And we, for one, do not read them. Which is why we really know nothing about anything.

1956 Licenses To Be Green On Light Gray

The color combination for the 1956 Illinois motor vehicle license plates will be ivy green numerals on a light powder gray background, secretary of state Charles F. Carpentier has announced.

The contract for manufacture of the plates has been let to Hemp & Co. of Macomb, which submitted the lower of the two bids received, Secretary Carpentier said. The Macomb firm, manufacturer of the plates for the last several years, bid 33.7 cents per set of plates, he said. Nine companies were invited to bid.

Secretary Carpentier also announced that all passenger car plates, regardless of the size of the license number, will be the same demensions, 6 by 12 inches.

There never was a good war, or a bad peace.

Benjamin Franklin

To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace.

Record Cow

A registered Guernsey cow, Norgert's General's Dewdrop, owned by Est. N. F. McNaught, Elgin, has completed an official advanced registry record of 11,081 pounds of milk and 584 pounds of fat on two times daily milking for 305 days, and met calving requirements. She started her record as a five year-old. This production represents approximately 5349 quarts of high-quality milk.

Lions Olympics followed the parade Wednesday afternoon with swimming races headlining evening's program.

Social Security Has Grown Since Birth 20 Yrs. Ago

It was 20 years ago, August 14, 1935, that social security act became law, Julius Berman, northwest district manager of the social security administration reminded people in this area.

Generally, when people refer to social security, they are talking about the old-age and survivors insurance program under the Social Security Act, he said. In commemorating the 20th anniversary of the signing of this law, Berman indicated how it is now affecting the lives of almost all of us.

HE STATED that almost 8 million persons are now receiving over 400 million dollars every month in benefits under the program. Over 70 million people are now insured under the law so that in the event of retirement or death, they or their families will be eligible for benefits.

The average retired worker is now receiving about $60 a month. However, the average for those who have retired in the past few years is $80 a month and their wives' benefits average $41 a month. Moreover, Berman stated that an important part of the old-age and survivors insurance program is the protection given to widows and children in the event of the workers' death.

TODAY, the average benefit for a young widow with two minor children is $185 a month. Total family benefits can be as much as $200 a month. In addition, lump-sum death payments range from $90 to $255.

Looking ahead twenty years to 1975, Berman predicted that by then 93 million Americans will be insured under the program. It is expected that of the 20 million persons over 65 at that time, 4 out of 5 will be eligible for benefits. (G

Pork Again On 'Bargain' List

Pork items again are the big "bargain" list at Chiago area retail meat counters, the American meat institute pointed out this week. All cuts are far below year-ago prices, some as much as 25 per cent off.

Rib end loin roasts fell into this class, wile other pork cuts where anywhere from 10 to 17 per cent lower than last year. Skinless frankfurters were 4 per cent less, while leg of lamb was down 2 per cent and veal cutlet down 1 per cent.

Not until she reaches the beef department does Mrs. Chicago Housewife find any plus signs, and even there chuck roast is 9 per cent and hamburger 5 per cent lower. Both are at their lowest levels since January, 1954. Only round steak and rib roast are higher, both 4 per cent, among the cuts tested by the Institute.
